YOUNG POLITICIAN IS SECRETLY MARRIED

HAS BEEN A HUSBAND OVER 4 YEARS

Wm. Basil White Is Father of a Fine Boy

Wife Was Miss Irma Bentfeld, a Strikingly Handsome Young Woman of San Francisco.

Another secret wedding has been revealed and as the denoument there will be a happy home coming for the family of William Basil White next Monday or Tuesday, when he returns from Portland with his wife and his son to the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White, in this city.

It will be a surprise to the friends and associates of young Mr. White to learn that he has been married for four years, and that he is the happy father of a sturdy boy who is over two years of age. The ceremony was performed by a Catholic priest in San Francisco.

Yet such is the case, again illustrating the old story that truth is stranger than fiction, and that one can never tell just what a man's station in life is until something happens to bring about a revolation.

Prominent Family.

The White family have long been prominent in social, political and business affairs of Oakland, Mr. White senior having served as postmaster during the administration of President Cleveland and both have been identified with leaders of the Democratic party in Alameda county.

Mr. White junior is a member of the Alameda County Democratic Central committee, a position he has held for years, and he is a lawyer of recognized ability. Before the fire of 1906 he had his law offices in San Francisco, but after the fire he went into the real estate business with his brother-in-law, forming the partnership of Dibert & White and occupying a fine building on which they hold a long term lease, next door to the Call building near the corner of Market and Third streets, San Francisco.

Each Lived With Parents.

During all the four years of his married life William Basil White, who is 30 years of age, resided with his parents in this city and his wife lived with her parents in San Francisco. When the little stranger made his appearance, something over two years ago, the child was sent to an aunt of Mrs. White Jr., who lives in Portland, and has been taken care of there by the good woman to whom it was entrusted, the parents paying several visits to the Oregon metropolis in the meantime.

But at last the mother-love of the young wife would brook no further separation, and as it was necessary to bring the little fellow to San Francisco it became plain that further hiding of the secret would be difficult.

This is supposed to be the reason for divulging the fact of the marriage, though J. J. White, father of the newly discovered benedict, says frankly that he knows of no reason which would make it necessary or even desirable to hide the facts

WAR CLOUDS GATHERING

CONVENTION MAY COME HERE

Such Is Understood to Be the Feeling Among Members of the State Republican Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25. — The executive committee of the Republican State Central committee met this morning at the Fairmont hotel. The committee prepared a call for the next State Republican convention and recommended that the convention be held on Thursday, August 27. No information in regard to the city in which the convention is to be held was given out but it is understood that the majority of the members of the committee are favorable to Oakland as the convention city.

Davis Succeeds Flint.

The committee recommended that the plan of holding primaries be adopted in all counties throughout the State, where the law does not make such a plan mandatory. W. H. Davis of Oakland was elected to fill the vacancy on the committee created by the resignation of Senator Thomas Flint of San Benito.

To Select Chairman.

The Central Committee is in session this afternoon and doubtless will ratify the recommendations of the executive committee and will name the place of holding the convention. A meeting of the executive committee will be held following the meeting of the Central Committee when a new chairman to succeed General George Stone will be elected.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon meeting was called to order at 2:20 o'clock by General

MRS. FRANK J. GOULD, GRANDDAUGHTER OF THE FAMOUS NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE, EUGENE KELLY, WHO IS SEEKING A DIVORCE.

Recent Separation of Prominent Couple Followed by Suit.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Papers have been served upon Frank J. Gould in a suit for absolute divorce brought by his wife, who was Miss Helen M. Kelly. When service was made at Gould's office yesterday he declined to say whether he would defend the suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould were married in 1901. The first rumors of trouble came in 1906, when it was said a separation suit was under way. A reconciliation was effected, but rumors of dissension continued until the actual parting last week, Mrs. Gould remaining at their Fifth avenue home with the two children, Helen, aged 5, and Dorothy, aged 3 years.

Mrs. Gould has twenty days in which to file her bill of complaint and her husband a like period in which to file an answer.

OVER VENEZUELA

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, June 25.—The gunboat Marietta came into port early this morning from Porto Cabello. She has on board Jacob Sleeper, secretary of the American legation in Venezuela, and Lieutenant Francis A. Ruggles, the military attache, and Mrs. Ruggles.

Mr. Sleeper has been acting as charge d'affaires at Caracas since the departure of Minister Russell early in May. He and Lieutenant Ruggles withdrew from the legation at Caracas, placing the interests of the United States in charge of the Brazilian embassy.

Marietta to Remain.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Jacob Sleeper, who arrived at Willemstad today, will proceed north to an American port by a regular line steamer. Commander Maxwell of the Marietta has been instructed to remain at Willemstad pending further orders. The administration wants the Marietta for use as a dispatch boat between Willemstad and Porto Cabello.

KILLED FOR POLITICAL FEUD

Newspaper Article Led to Collision in Tennessee That Caused Death of Noted Man.

LEBANON, Tenn., June 25.—Captain Ellis Harper was shot and killed today by William Suit. Harper, it is said, attacked Suit with a stick on account of a political quarrel. Suit, who is a Patterson man, it is alleged, wrote an article for a Nashville paper to which Harper, who is a Carmack man, took offense.

Captain Harper was a picturesque figure during the civil war and was a noted Confederate partisan raider.

AIRSHIP THE CAUSE OF CHARGE

More Woe for Inventor Morrell, Who Is Accused of Obtaining $3,000 by False Representations.

(Special to the Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—There is more trouble in store for James V. Morrell, the unfortunate airship man whose gigantic flying machine came to grief at Berkeley some weeks ago. Morrell is now awaiting trial in Judge Lawlor's court on a charge of falsely representing certain stocks and, to add to his burdens Alexander Ots, a broker, with offices at 322 Countryman building, appeared before Judge Cabaniss this morning and swore out a warrant for the airship man's arrest on a charge of obtaining money on false pretenses.

Ots says that Morrell secured $3000 in cash from him, representing that his airship property was worth $160,000, and that he had other assets totaling $200,000 besides personal property.

Morrell will probably be arrested on the new warrant today.

Spring Valley Water Company Directors to Decide

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Although the board of directors of the Spring Valley Water Company in their meeting held this morning took no definite action looking toward a solution of the water rate trouble, they decided that if their application for a restraining order should not be granted they would collect the rates fixed by the ordinance.

The session was an exceedingly short one and Captain I. T. Payson, president of the water company, issued the following statement immediately after the adjournment:

"The application for injunction will be heard by the court Saturday. It will probably be determined by the 1st of July. If our application should not be granted we shall collect the rates fixed by the ordinance. It would serve no useful purpose for the board to take any action until after the decision."

United States Circuit Judge Morrow being absent from the city, Judge Farrington of Nevada will hear the application on Saturday, and City Attorney Long and his assistants are busily at work preparing to meet the arguments put forth by the water company.

The action of the Spring Valley Water Company at this time called to mind that Francis J. Heney was counsel for that corporation in their first injunction proceedings against the city some years ago.

ONE KILLED: THREE BADLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

STOCKTON, June 25.—Miss Emma Schuepp of this city was instantly killed late last night in an automobile accident near Burnham, and Mrs. Edith Walsh, formerly Miss Edith Hibbitt; Dr. J. P. Sargent of Lodi and W. L. Dudley of Stockton were injured, Mrs. Walsh sustaining a broken limb. The men escaped with bruises.

The party was on its way to Mrs. Smith's ranch near Burnham, where the women were to remain all night with relatives. While going at a high rate of speed and rounding a turn up an approach over a railroad track, one of the rear wheels went to pieces and all hands were thrown on. The coroner was notified and a Santa Fe train was flagged, taking Mrs. Walsh to her home in Merced. The deceased leaves two sisters in this city and a father, John Schuepp, at Salinas. Dr. Sargent is a well-known farmer and cattleman and Dudley is a real estate man.

OUT OF JAIL

Gamblers Defeat Race Track Law

NEW YORK, June 25.—Justice Bischoff in the Supreme Court today discharged Melville Collins and Joseph Loewy, who were recently arrested at the Sheepshead Bay race track for alleged violation of the anti-betting law. Under a recent decision of the Court of Appeals both commitments were illegal and could not stand.

Assistant District Attorney Elder of Brooklyn said concerning the case:

"I consider the matter a prepared case, and therefore did not object to the discharge of Collins and Loewy. I don't care to have them rearrested, and if any one else does he will have to do so on his own responsibility. I agreed to dismiss the cases on account of a technical defect in the commitments."

It is understood that the prosecuter does not wish to be a party to a test case, and would prefer to act only where arrests are made by the county authorities or police.

rive today from New Hampsire. Neither Marion nor Francis will attend their father's funeral.

Among other relatives expected to arrive today are two of Mr. Cleveland's sisters, Miss Rose Cleveland of New York, who was mistress of the White House before President Cleveland's marriage, and Mrs. M. L. Bacon, wife of an architect of Toledo, O. Another sister, Mrs. Mary Cleveland, is expected tomorrow from Omaha.

The hour for the funeral has been fixed at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to give those who live at a long distance and who are expected to attend, an opportunity to reach here. Services will be simple and unostentatious and will be conducted with extreme privacy, if the wishes of Mrs. Cleveland are carried out.

Princeton Mourning.

Historic Princeton, in common with the state and nation, is mourning the death of her distinguished resident. Flags at half staff and emblems of mourning throughout the college town bear mute testimony of the nation's loss. Regret is expressed that Dr. Woodrow Wilson, head of Princeton University and a cherished friend of Mr. Cleveland, will be unable to attend the funeral, as he he sailed for Europe only a few days

Simple Casket.

Mr. Cleveland's body will be buried in a heavy oaken casket with silver handles. A silver plate bears this simple inscription:

"GROVER CLEVELAND.
"MARCH 18, 1837.
"JUNE 24, 1908."

Afternoon Funeral.

While the general outline of the funeral arrangements has been agreed upon, many of the minor details will not be settled until later in the day. It was agreed at Westland at 10:30 a. m. that the complete funeral arrangements would not be given out until this evening. Some of the arrangements depend upon the ability of certain relatives and intimate friends of the family to reach here tomorrow. The funeral is fixed at 5 o'clock in the afternoon in order to give those whose presence is desired time to get here from distant points.

All of these persons have been telegraphed for and until responses are received no names or details of the funeral will be announced. A tentative list of the honorary pallbearers has been prepared and it is expected the names will be made public as soon as the men invited to act have been heard from.

Roosevelt to Attend.

Local citizens in conjunction with the friends who are assisting Mrs. Cleveland in her hour of sorrow are today giving some attention to arrangements for the visit of President Roosevelt. He probably will be met by a very small committee of Mr. Cleveland's friends.

Although the funeral will be strictly private, at Mrs. Cleveland's residence, a great many people are expected to come to Princeton tomorrow and in anticipation of this the local authorities are making preparations to handle the crowd. A force of police from Trenton, N. J., will be here to assist the local police and an attempt will be made to rope off the streets from the Cleveland residence at Bayard Lane and Hodges avenue to the cemetery. The local militia men may be pressed into the service.

Among Mrs. Cleveland's callers during the morning hours were Dr. A. T. Osmond and Dr. Cyrus F. Brackett, Bishop of Princeton University and intimate friends of the family.

Death Mask Taken.

The death mask of the former President was taken yesterday. Soon after death had occurred, Mrs. Cleveland sent for Edwin Wilson, a sculptor connected with Princeton University, and requested him to make the mask. Wilson is working on it today.

Mrs. Cleveland, accompanied by President Finley, drove to the Princeton cemetery at 6:40 o'clock this morning to look over the burial place. Princeton cemetery is located in a pretty section of the town, close to the university buildings, and about half a mile from the Cleveland home. Many of the honored dead of the Princeton University are buried there and the burial grounds are known as the graduates and undergraduates of the University as "the Westminster Abbey of America." The Cleveland plot is near a small chapel which stands not far from the entrance to the cemetery. There is one grave in the plot, that of Ruth Cleveland, and it is covered with ivy.

affliction which has come to your home. The pasing of Grover Cleveland is a great loss to the country he served with fidelity and ability."

Cable From Paris.

Prince Roland Bonaparte, Paris:

"I beg leave to express to you my most respectful condolence for the misfortune which has come to you."

Princeton Club of St. Louis:

"The University has lost by his death one of its most respected and beloved trustees."

Messages of sympathy were also received from A. W. Terrill, former minister to Turkey; C. R. Breckenridge, former minister of Russia; Governor Stuart of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Mary Lloyd Harrison, widow of President Harrison, and Allen Marquand of Frankfort, Germany.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR ROOSEVELT TO PRINCETON

The President remained quietly at home this morning.

SIX YOUTHS FACE FRAUD CHARGE

Wireless Telephone Promoters Have Date of Examinations Set.

WAR CLOUDS

his own government, for the State Department does not intend to disturb him, and, in fact, he is a welcome visitor there.

Object to Attitude.

The fact is that in the view of the department there is no crisis in Venezuelan relations with the United States. The United States has become dissatisfied with Venezuela's attitude, but has chosen to express that dissatisfaction by the peaceful method of closing up its legation at Caracas. It does not intend to make any further move for the time being, any way, and at Bogota there is a confident expectation that President Castro will soon come to feel very uncomfortable in his estrangement from his great neighbor of the north.

Board United States Gunboat.

PORTO CABELLO, June 24, via Willemstead, June 25. — The American gunboat Marietta came into Porto Cabello yesterday to get Jacob Sleeper, the American Charge D'Affaires at Caracas and Lieutenant and Mrs. Ruggles. She was saluted by the forts as she came into the harbor.

Sleeper and Lieutenant and Mrs. Ruggles came down from Caracas to Valencia by rail, La Guaira being closed on account of the plague. They went on board this morning after which the Marietta proceeded for Coracoa. Mrs. Ruggles will be left at Willemstad, after which Sleeper and Ruggles will proceed on board the German boat to Guantanamo, Cuba.

The El Constitucional, the organ of President Castro, comments on the coincidence that it was the Marietta that took Herbert Bowen, who then represented Venezuela, to sign the protocols at Washington. These protocols, the paper adds, the United States now fails to recognize, insisting that the American claims against Venezuela again be submitted to arbitration. This course of action, El Constitucional says, has brought about a severing of diplomatic relations between Venezuela and the United States.

CROWD WILDLY CHEERS FOR TAFT

Secretary Receives Enthusiastic Greeting When He Reaches New London.

NEW LONDON, June 25.—Secretary and Mrs. Taft and the class of '78 of Yale got a tremendous greeting upon their arrival at the railroad station here this afternoon by the thousands of men and women who had come to witness the race of the 'varsity eights of Yale and Harvard. Taft's car was attached to one of the excursion trains from New Haven.

The crowd kept quiet as his parlor cars went by, then they saw the figures '78 and then two windows back was the secretary. "It's Taft, there he is," was the yell and the cheers began and the secretary came out on the platform.

"Shakes" Handshakers.

The crowd surged forward to have a handshake. The secretary waved them back and jumped off. Big as he is the secretary was lost to sight behind banners and bunches of balloons.

The people wanted to shake hands and the outskirts of the crowd, way up on the rise of the street 100 feet away the cheer was taken up. Laughing and bowing and calling out to some friends he noticed in the crowd the secretary slowly made his way in an automobile out in the square. Never before was there such a battery of cameras leveled at the secretary.

CONVENTION MAY COME

George Stone, the chairman. T. S. Keller of Alameda acted as secretary.

There are ninety-four members in the committee, exclusive of the executive committee, the latter of which comprises twenty-one members. Of the main body there were about sixty members present.

Before assembling there were rumors in circulation to the effect that there was a move contemplated by the Lincoln-Roosevelt members to assume management of the coming Taft-Sherman campaign.

The regular Republican members, however, stated that if such an attempt should be made, it would fail most signally of success.

YOUNG POLITICIAN IS SECRETLY MARRIED

Proud of Grandson.

Mr. White Sr. was asked about his son's secret marriage today and fairly glowed with pleasure as he said that it was true that his son had made him grandfather to a handsome boy. "I have not seen my new grandson," he said, cheerily, "but from his picture he seems to be a handsome and sturdy little chap and we shall gladly welcome him when he and his mother and father get home next week. You can say that we are all very much pleased. My son's wife visited us last Sunday and took dinner with the family before starting for Portland for the boy. She is a fine looking young woman and we have no objections to her. She comes of a good German family of San Francisco and is in every way a worthy young woman. My son and his wife and child will stop with us here in Oakland for a short time and then will go to housekeeping in San Francisco.

"Quite naturally, as any parent will understand, it cut us somewhat to have him marry without telling us anything about it, but if he had told us there would have been no objection. At any rate he was past 26 years of age when he married and could of course do as he pleased.

Happily Married.

"One thing that gratifies me is what I learn from those who know something of their married life, and that is that it seems to be very happy, and there is no reason why it should not be happy. We all hope it will be."

Mr. White smiled as he mused upon the way in which the news was broken to him. "I saw that there was something that my son wanted to say, but it was quite awhile before he came to the point. At last he told me, but he didn't have the courage to tell his mother for several days afterward."

Just a Whim.

When Mr. White was asked if he knew of any good reason for keeping the marriage secret he replied that he thought there was no "good" reason for the secrecy, but added that it might have been a whim at first, and he thought he could understand his son's feelings. At the time of the marriage the young man may have felt a hesitancy about telling his mother of the alliance, for fear that she might not approve of his marrying a young woman who was a stranger to the family. The longer he put off making the confession the harder it became, and at last came the big fire in San Francisco which destroyed his son's library and nearly all of his property in that city and also caused heavy losses to the family of his wife, so that then the task of telling the secret appeared to be more formidable than ever, and as the young man had to begin life all over again he allowed the matter to drift along from month to month. As nobody seemed to be apt to learn the secret he apparently concluded not to say anything about it until there was some urgent reason for the disclosure. Mr. White Sr. added that this was merely his surmise, as his son had not made the subject clear to him. "I guess you'll have to get the explanation from my son," he said, smilingly.

"You can just say that it came as a surprise to us all, but we are not put out by it. I shall be glad to see my handsome little grandson."

Pretty Romance.

Mrs. White, who was Miss Irma Bentfeld, is a tall brunette with blue eyes and belongs to a well-known German family in San Francisco.

Mr. White Jr. met his wife in a social way at the home of mutual friends in San Francisco and it seemed to be a case of love at sight with both. Miss Bentfeld was musical and Mr. White all of a sudden took an unusual interest in all sorts of concerts and operas, and it was thought at one time that he might even take singing lessons himself in order that he and his loved one might be more together, but just how far this inclination led the young husband is not known.

Heroic Patience.

It was trying to both of them to live separately so long, she at her parents' home and he at the home of his parents, but by the exercise of heroic patience they managed to exist under these adverse circumstances for the four years of self-imposed probation, and finally their devotion is rewarded by the joyous reunion that awaits them when they return with their little son, who has passed the two years of his life away from them.

Mrs. White Sr. was not at home when a reporter for THE TRIBUNE called and Miss White did not wish to talk of the affair other than to say the family was very greatly surprised and could not possibly understand how her brother had been able to keep the marriage secret so long.

Handsome Girl.

The young lady was a slight acquaintance of theirs and, although they were not intimate friends they considered her a strikingly handsome girl and an accomplished musician. They had never seen the little nephew but his picture showed him to be a very handsome little fellow.

Among the many political and business friends of young White the news of this secret marriage will cause surprise no less than that expressed by his family. He was looked on as proof against the darts of Cupid and in fact, that he is a benedict will bring to him a shower of congratulations and good wishes when he gets home next week.

UNION WINS VICTORY IN COURT

After spending nearly a week in hearing the testimony of the Pacific Coast Lumber and Mill Company, in their effort to secure a permanent injunction against the Buildings Trades Council and obtain $8000 damages for an alleged boycott on their mill, Judge George E. Church of Fresno, sitting in Judge Melvin's department of the Superior Court, this afternoon dismissed the suit on the motion of the defendants, on the grounds that there was no cause for action.

KEY ROUTE INN TO HAVE A NEW MANAGER

The Key Route Inn will change hands on July 1. Henry Barker, until recently manager of Bohemian and University Clubs of San Francisco, has leased the Key Route Inn for a number of years and will operate it on American and European plan. The hotel is situated just far enough from the business center, Twenty-second street and Broadway, and at the terminus of the Key Route trains, to make it especially attractive for a high-class family hotel.

The Key Route Inn is one of the most complete and best equipped houses in the state, costing about $300,000. Many new features will be added, such as afternoon tea room, ladies' and gents' grill, a la carte, etc., in fact everything for the comfort and pleasure of the guests. The name, Key Route Inn, will be changed to Key Route Hotel.

The catering and service in general should be perfect, as can be made with Mr. Barker at the head, as he has a reputation for catering to only the best. He has a large number of friends, both here and in San Francisco, and is a thirty-second degree Mason and a member of the Mystic Shriners. Free automobile will meet all trains.

JUDGE MELVIN RETURNS FROM G.O.P.

Splits Court Vacation in Order to Make Trips as Delegate.

Superior Judge Henry A. Melvin arrived home in Oakland last night on the overland from Chicago, where he was a delegate to the Republican National convention. He reports a fine trip and had a splendid time while away from Oakland. He is at his home in East Oakland, and after taking his wife to their summer home at Brookdale, the judge will return to Oakland and be on the bench Monday morning to call the regular court calendar.

Judge Melvin has been away on his regular court vacation, not missing a day on his time to serve in court. When he leaves again as a delegate to the grand lodge of Elks in Dallas, Texas, it will be on regular court vacation. Judge Melvin is a busy traveler, but does not miss his duties in Department 2 of the Alameda county Superior Court.

In High Standing.

Events ran smoothly along during the entire trip and Judge Melvin states that the reports received here about the prominence and popularity of the California delegation are not exaggerated a single word. When it was thought possible that George A. Knight was to be nominated for vice-president Judge Melvin was the chosen orator to second the nomination.

Last Friday, Saturday and part of Sunday, Judge Melvin spent at Evanston, Ill., at the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Paul. Sunday he returned to Chicago to meet Judge William M. Hargest, who is the chairman on the ritual committee of the grand lodge of Elks. They worked over the new funeral and flag day rituals of the Elks, which will be presented at the grand lodge meeting in Dallas.

New Lodge Rituals.

When Judge Melvin made his final report as grand exalted ruler last year he recommended that June 14 be set aside as Flag Day by the lodge. This has been done and a splendid ritual is being prepared. Judge Melvin had the pleasure of hearing it read to him in Chicago. The new funeral ritual of the Elks will be far superior to the old one, according to Judge Melvin.

POLICE ARE BAFFLED BY CASE

In Hopes of Clearing Kennedy Case Energies Are Bent on Finding Missing Pair.

Thomas Dolan—22 years of age, five feet five inches tall, fairly well built light complexioned and wearing his hair long and puffed at the back Dressed in blue suit and wearing brown hat

Mrs Thomas Dolan—19 years of age short and of slim build Dark complexioned Of Servian extraction

These are the descriptions of the young couple whom the police believe can tell all about the shooting of young Alfred Kennedy who died Monday afternoon at the Receiving Hospital The police are bending their efforts to capture the couple and think they will eventually do so Until they are found and tell their stories, it is doubtful whether Kennedy's death will ever be explained

Police Know Nothing.

Captain of Detectives Peterson frankly admits that he knows nothing definite about the wounding of Kennedy He says that the young man might have been shot at Fifth and Brush streets where two shots were fired Saturday night and from whence a trail of blood leads to Seventh and Jefferson streets or he might have been wounded by Constable Allen in attempting to rob the safe of the Fruitvale Lumber Company

Inquest Saturday Morning.

The inquest into Kennedy's death will be held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the Oakland morgue Efforts are being made to locate the Dolans so that they can tell their stories to the coroner's jury But it is likely to be the verdict of this jury that no one knows anything about how Kennedy came to his death He died denying that he was in the Fruitvale robbery

Dolan Found Kennedy

Dolan took Kennedy to the Receiving Hospital early Sunday morning and said that he would go to the mother of the youth in San Francisco and inform her of her son's predicament Since then neither Dolan or his wife have put in their appearance and they have dropped out of sight as if the earth and opened up and swallowed them.

Political Knockers.

Congressman J. R. Knowland, at a luncheon of the Merchants' Club at the Hotel St. Mark yesterday, said:

"There are abroad in the land too many individuals who, when the sun shines, see only the shadows it casts."

Which is apropos of the effort now being made in this State to discredit public men and decry their achievements.

Congressman Knowland goes further into the subject: "It has become quite the fashion to attack every man in public office, regardless of the years he may have served, the record he may have made, or the good he may have accomplished. The result is that a condition is being brought about whereby young men hesitate about entering public life as a career—a condition that is most deplorable."

The burden of the "croak" that is now heard in California is that the times are degenerate, and men in public life not to be trusted. Those whom the croakers deem safe to single out are attacked openly, and such as are strongly entrenched with the people are treated with inuendo. It appears to be assumed that these tactics will sufficiently avail to enable the party of attack to attain the personal and political ends that inspire their course of action.

It may be possible that Congressman Knowland was speaking from a personal standpoint. He is a young man who entered public life as a career. His rise has been notable, though entirely commensurate with his abilities and achievements. His record both in the State Legislature and the National Congress has been exceptional. If such record does not constitute a shield against "croakers," the conclusion that young men have not the proper incentive to enter public life is natural enough

There may be some who honestly criticise, but the deplorable thing is that baseless charges and reckless statements on the part of mendacious newspapers are responsible in too large part for this tendency to discredit all men in public life.

Congressman Knowland in his speech came to this optimistic conclusion, which should furnish food for thought to those who are receptive of the idea that the times are degenerate and public men to be distrusted:

"I believe the world is growing better; that year by year higher standards are being established; that all men in public life are not actuated by selfish motives; that we still have in this country of ours men who are willing to sacrifice business opportunities that they may render service to the nation and honor the flag we love."

Undoubtedly there are many such men, just as patriotic and willing to serve their country on high lines of duty as were those of any period of the country's history; but unfortunately their efforts are not likely to meet with as certain appreciation in this day as in others that are made luminous in history and biography.

A reaction which shall accord just credit to the public official who serves his constituents and his country well, and shall reprobate the agitator and the conscienceless newspaper that attacks all public men merely because they are public men, is what is desired, and what may be looked for in the reasonable future. The people are too just to stand for this unjustifiable attitude toward public officials a great length of time.

Good Roads in California.

Perhaps there could be no greater boon to California than an era of comprehensive road building. No matter how many electric and steam railroads may be projected up and down the State, there must always be a vast amount of vehicle traffic for short distances and in by-sections.

This traffic is not now economically carried because the roads are so poor. Its motive power is mostly animal, whose limitations are fixed. With good roads the traction engine and the auto freight wagon would supersede the horse and mule, just as the big electric car has taken the place of the little horsecar, with no increase in the operative force in charge.

A great deal of the most productive regions of California is low-lying, and in winter is impassable to loaded vehicles. Other sections rich in productive qualities have the adobe soil. Roads constructed of this soil are likewise impassable in the wet season.

It follows that such traffic as the hauling of crops to rail or waterway connection has to be done before the winter rains set in, and this exigency nearly always operates against economy in the farm work. The farmer has to haul to market at a particular time whether other duties press upon him or not. With roads equally good at all seasons he could do his hauling at those times when there was nothing else that demanded particular attention. Also greater loads could be moved with the same force, and more expeditiously.

But all these considerations have been gone over to such an extent that the recent Good Roads Convention seems a sort of belated consideration of the subject.

What is encouraging now, however, is that the governor has lent his aid, and a definite plan has been proposed to finance very extensive road building in California. It involves an immense issue of bonds, but the benefit will be so direct and enormous that it will be an easy burden for the State to bear.

Exuberance of Students.

Student pranks are inexplicable to some, and frequently annoying to all. They are generally overlooked, however, as merely the process of letting off steam on the part of those who have not yet reached the stage where there is no surplus exuberance; where, indeed, the exigencies of existence most often call for an overconsumption of vital energy.

The student pranks that seem the most unnecessary are the variants of hazing. Every little while there is a fatality connected with one of these affairs; but it never seems to check the practice. We have recently seen how student pranks at a California college turned out to the discomfiture of some of those who indulged in them; and often there are rather painful exhibits, where the ethics, and even the moralities, that prevail in all other walks of life are strikingly reversed.

A prank that is in line with the old-time larks of our fathers is reported from Delaware College. Students purloined a cow, managed to conduct her up to the recitation hall of the college; also taking down the public drinking fountain and setting it up again in the same room to the end that the animal would not suffer for a drink in her classic quarters. It required the particular work of a number of men to undo the prank.

This enterprise seems to have been strikingly unnecessary; but it was not as objectionable as some of the things the students nearer home have been known to do. The subject may be summed up by saying that students will be students.

DRINKS POISON BY MISTAKE; WILL RECOVER

Woman's Mouth and Throat Horribly Burned by Strong Liniment.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Mistaking the liniment sold to her by a traveling peddler for a cough medicine, prescribed by her physician, Mrs. Emio C. Lau of 1155 Octavia street, had a narrow escape from death by poisoning at 2:30 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Lau has been suffering from a severe cold. She awoke in a fit of coughing this morning and went to the medicine chest without striking a light. Having procured what she thought was the bottle she placed it to her lips.

Screams in Agony.

She immediately noticed her mistake when the strong liniment burned her mouth and throat horribly and she cried out in agony. Awakened by her screams, her husband, who is a chauffeur by occupation, went to her assistance and fearing for her life, summoned a cab and had her removed to the central emergency hospital. Dr. Hill, after administering an antidote, gave it as his opinion that she will recover.

Merchant Awakens in Morning to Find Supposed Friend Looting Suitcase.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—An affable stranger, who succeeded in ingratiating himself into the good will of C. F. Smith, a Grand Army man, and a merchant of Bellingham, Wis., robbed him of $165 and a gold watch and chain.

Smith says he arrived here last evening on the late train and was escorted to the Mohawk hotel, 133 East street, by a young man about 20 years old, whose acquaintance he had made while en route. The two took a room together and this morning the old man awoke to find his friend going through his dress suit case. He shouted at him to desist and the stranger fled.

Smith describes the robber as 5 feet 5 inches tall, smooth face, weighing about 145 pounds, about 20 years old, and wearing a brown suit of clothes.

GENERAL MANAGER KELLY'S ADVICE TO EMPLOYES OF THE TRACTION COMPANY

(By W. F Kelly, General Manager, Oakland Traction Company)
"IT'S UP TO YOU."

To all Employes of the Key Route and Oakland Traction Company.

A big lo of you men are railroading in the right way, and your conduct, both 'on duty" and "off duty,' commends you to your employers and all good citizens For all this class we have nothing but words of praise and a genuine interest in your success

There are a few who are looking for a chance to give the least service for he most money who are always kicking about more pay and shorter hours who are constantly "chewing the rag about something the company has done, or hasn't done, or ought to do who spend most of the r time off duty' looking for a chance to get separated from heir money at some 'thirst parlor or pool room who think that a poker game or a horse race are the real things worth living for, and that railroading is only a disagreeable incident in the daily routine

"Live White and Play Fair"

We want to say to all this class that you are just a few too many for our service You don't belong to the big crowd of decent fellows wh "live white and play fair You are no credit to us to yourselves or your fellow workmen who don't stand for this type of railroading If you want to stay with us you want to 'cut it all out right now, and permanently

We don't want to say how, or where you spend your time and money You can stake it on a bob-tailed flush, or a bob-tailed horse, or exchange it for red liquor that will give you a red eye and a red temper the next day You can do any of these things and a lot more, and say they are "none of our business' If you think that way, better "have another think'

We can't get away from the fact that you are our agents and representatives before the public The public doesn't know us, but they do know when you are wobbly with liquor careless and discourteous and they are very apt to think that we endorse that kind of thing

"Off Duty" Behavior Counts

We are to a large degree legally responsible for your acts when 'on duty' This being so we want to know that your conduct off duty' is not such as to wreck you mentally, morally, physically and financially

What ou do when "off duty is an index to your real character and is largely responsible for your mental and physical condition when 'on duty

Boozing, slot machines back-room card games, playing the races "chewing the rag etc don't fit the railroad business When we engage your service for certain duties we include the employment of your brains as well as your bodies We want your cheerful, willing effort and not half-hearted grumbling discontent We don't want your brain fuddled with liquor dulled from late hours and loss of sleep dreamy from the study of dope sheets You may be sober after a night at a poker game in the foul air of a card room, but you are in no condition to do our business properly

Look Pleasant, Feel Amiable

When you've played your money on the wrong horse you can hardly have your mind on our business or be smiling and gracious to the people with whom you are in contact You may put up a bluff' bu it is ten to one 'the grouch will come out at the first irritation All this sort of business points direct to the door of the "Down and Out Club'

Whether you are a shop foreman or a track oiler a car conductor or a ship captain, a motorman or an office clerk there is but one sure and swift finish to the fellow who follows this course Every day in the year in every large business in which men are employed, some has been is handed his ticket of membership in the 'Down and Out club You don't need to have gray in your whiskers or a stoop in your back to belong to the 'has beens' Many a fellow that looks all right and isn't 35 years of age belongs to this class His brain stopped growing because he didn't use it he has no interest in his work other than his wages he spends his money and leisure in drinking resorts and pool rooms he studies the racing forms and thinks that next day he'll strike it lucky" Before that day comes he has struck a prolonged vacation, and some other fellow is holding down his job

Thinking "Brains" Count

Thousands have followed this 'trust to luck' course and always with the same result The services of this class are never in demand because they never render honest and efficient service

Good railroading requires a clear, THINKING brain and an active, alert body If you are in dead earnest about railroading the way we want it done DO IT NOW Get out of the kicking gambling boozing class and get out NOW. "IT'S UP TO YOU

5 KILLED 20 Hurt and More May Die

CHICAGO June 25—Five persons are known to be dead and more than a score were injured, several of them seriously, as the result of an explosion followed by fire in a five-story building the upper floors of which were used as a boarding house at 178 Huron street today The explosion occurred in the plant of the Pabst Chemical company on the ground floor

The dead are all members of the same family and include the mother and four children They were found by firemen in the rear of the third floor Other occupants of the boarding house found their exit by the stairway cut off by flames and descended the fire escapes Several were overcome by the smoke and heat and were rescued by the police and firemen

Others jumped from the windows

The dead are Mrs Mary Nolan janitress of the building and her four daughters Mary Jennie Emma and Helen They seemingly had been hemmed in by the flames and suffocated before help reached them The explosion wrecked the front of the building and the fire spread rapidly owing to the inflammable nature of the chemicals stored in the basement The employes of the Pabst Chemical company escaped though several were injured by flying glass and debris They were nearly all girls The building is almost a total wreck

HEROIC JAP RESCUES CHILD

Saves Lives of Companions and Bears Infant From Burning Building Although Suffering From Severe Injuries.

BERKELEY June 25—In a fire which threatened to consume one of the main business blocks in the center of town last night Frank Nagatsuya a Japanese resident of the bunkhouse on Addison street where the fire originated saved the lives of two of his companions and of a Japanese infant by dropping them from the window of the flaming building when his companion were crazed with fear and unable to care for themselves

The fire is said to have started from the overturning or explosion of a kerosene stove and the first intimation of the danger came when Nagatsuya was seen to throw open the window and hurl the flaming stove into the little alleyway between the houses

Rescues Infant.

He then seized two of his companions and pushed them also through the window following with a tiny child which he had taken from the bed in his arms

Nagatsuya was severely burned by the oil about the face and hands and was placed under medical attendance by order of Fire Chief James Kenny

The fire alarm was put in 8 30 by Special Officer Ison from box 34 and fire companies 2 3 4 and 5 responded Heroic and systematic work on the part of the fire department was the only thing that saved the block of buildings between Center and Addison on Shattuck and including Union Club Armory hall several large drygoods stores and a number of stores and offices

Oil Tank Menaced.

Right in the path of the fire in the rear of the Nippinese Laundry was a large tank containing nearly 400 gallons of oil The great danger lay in the possibility of the fire reaching this tank and causing it to explode With great bravery and splendid energy the firemen fought back the flames and finally confined the fire to the two story frame building which is used by employes of M Hirano for lodging purposes This was literally gutted before the fire could be put out practically nothing being saved Damage is estimated is less than $1000

Guardsmen Fight Fire

A feature of the fire fighting was the work done by member of Company C the Berkeley company of the National Guard of California Besides assisting the firemen with the hose in the street members ran lines of hose to the roof of the armory hall overlooking the fire and prevented the blaze from spreading to their building The inaccessibility of the fire shut in on all sides by frame buildings and only to be reached through narrow alleys made the task unusually difficult It was feared at no time that the flames would reach the tank of oil in the laundry and exploding this spread to the surrounding buildings

A great crowd witnessed the blaze and cheers were heard for Fireman Will Cottrell who made his first run last night since having his face so severely burned while testing the chemical engine of the department a few days ago

CHARTER TO PRESERVE RIGHTS

Berkeley's New Organic Act Will Include Provisions for Guarding Water Front From Monopoly Corporations.

Correcting Charter

The section provides for the granting of franchises for the use of waterfront privileges and also protects the town from any possible depredation by the corporations which are interested in waterfront privileges

PICKPOCKET PLACED IN JAIL

Prisoner Thought to Be Partner of Wire-Tapper Who Got Big Money on Result of Horse Races.

(Special to the Tribune)

SAN FRANCISCO June 25—John Condon known to the police as an expert pickpocket and expert confidence man was taken into custody by Detectives Conlan and Mackey on the waterfront late last night and his name placed on the detinue book

Condon is believed to be the man who has been operating on street cars and among the crowds that assembled at Fillmore street and the officers are making an effort to secure tangible evidence against him

It is thought that Condon is a partner of the late Mike Kerman known throughout the country as the famous wire tapper and strangled for having cleared something like $200 000 from operations conducted at the Erie race track in New York

HUNTING BADGES NOT IN DEMAND

"But You Can't Hunt Without Them," Says Board of Commissioners

Get in the game and secure a hunting license for the new fiscal year beginning with July 1 Is the cry of the California State Board of Fish Commissioners and echoed by the county clerks office where the little aluminum badges are to be had for the price of one shilling each

There were 1700 badges sold last year from County Clerk Cook's office by this date while up to date this year but 216 have been disposed of There certainly is no dearth of sportsmanship this year and hunters think that because they have a badge from last year they are exempt they are certainly mistaken This year the badges are round Last year they were of oval shape so there is no possibility of using the out of season hunting permit

To Prosecute Violators

The commissioners took in a large sum of money last year which was the first year of the new law and announce that they have sufficient funds to prosecute all violators Extra officers will be sworn and cases where hunters are caught without licenses will not be dealt with very leniently Because some hunters were not asked to show their last year is no reason that they will not be interrupted by officers when they go in search of game protected by law during the coming year which dates from July 1 1908 to June 30 1909

Chief Deputy County Clerk A F Johnstone announces that there are plenty of hunting licenses to be had at the Hall of Records Last year the demand was so heavy at the beginning of the hunting season that there were not enough tags manufactured to supply the demand This year there will be no excuses nor exceptions Everybody must have a license to hunt say the commissioners

BLUEJAY CAUSES PANIC IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY June 25—A panic was created in the fashionable residence district on Hillegas avenue before the dawn this morning by the rapid discharge of clean shots coming from no one knew where Visions of burglars duels and bandits flashed through the minds of the citizens of the district and the thought of bloodshed in the quiet of cultured Berkeley caused fear and trembling among the people who gathered at windows to discover the cause of the commotion

The cause was discovered to be the desire of Fred Geary of 1610 Hillegas avenue to possess himself of a certain bluejay in his garden He was arrested and taken to the Berkeley police station and later forfeited his bail of $5 by refusing to appear in court

ENGAGEMENTS ARE GOSSIP AT LUNCHEONS AND OVER TEACUPS

WEDDINGS OF MID-JUNE ARE AMONG THE PRETTIEST IN YEARS

The marriage of Miss Marietta Havens the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Havens to Paul Dinsmore took place last evening in St. Paul's Episcopal Church and several hundred friends assembled to witness the pretty ceremony.

The service was read by the Rev. Alexander Allen.

The church decorations combined simplicity with originality and beauty of design. Clusters of large, white Oji poppies with the brilliant gold centers gave the touch of light in the profusion of ferns which were fashioned into knots of green and suspended from the improvised arches in the church.

The color scheme was white and green with garlands of fern wound about the white pillars in the church.

The bride wore a handsome wedding gown of heavy white satin, with the empire effect heightened by the long court train. Point lace made the bodice for the gown, and a delicate trimming of orange blossoms added to its beauty. The tulle veil was held in place with the orange wreath, and a shower of lilies of the valley completed the bridal costume. Mrs. Havens wore an elaborate pale gray brocade, with point applique, and a dainty trimming suggested by narrow bands of velvet in the pastel shades.

The three bridesmaids, Miss Rita Dinsmore, Miss Hollie Matheas and Miss Edith Simpson, were gowned alike in empire gowns of pale blue messaline satin, and wore large silver bows in their hair. They carried shower bouquets of lavender and pink sweet peas.

William Dinsmore, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were Dr. Palmer Dunbar, Dr. Percy Gaskill and Arthur W. Foster Jr.

After the ceremony a reception and wedding supper was held at the Claremont Country Club, to which about 100 relatives and near friends were invited. The bride's table was prettily decorated with pink and lavender sweet peas, with touches of pale blue, while Mrs. A. W. Havens table was decorated entirely with pink sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore will spend their honeymoon at the Grand Canyon, and will return by way of Southern California.

The bride is one of the most poular members of the local smart set and since the announcement of her engagement a few months ago has been showered with favors and entertainments.

Mr. Dinsmore is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Dinsmore of San Jose, formerly of San Francisco. He is prominent in business as well as in the social world.

MISS DRUM'S ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss Sara Drum and John Gill and the news was told in an informal way through notes sent this week to the friends of the couple.

Miss Drum is prominent in San Francisco society and belongs to one of the oldest families. Since her debut she has been a great favorite at social functions but is also fond of outdoor sports. She is regarded as a golf expert and is proficient in the handling of her motor car. Her parents' death occurred some time ago and Miss Drum has resided at the family home in Broadway near Broderick street with her brothers, Frank, John and William.

Her sister, Mrs. William Geer Hitchcock, is one of the prominent society matrons of San Mateo and shortly after John Drum's marriage to Miss Georgia Spieker of Ross Valley, Miss Drum went to Mrs. Hitchcock's home for a visit. The engagement was consequently announced in San Mateo and probably the wedding will take place there in the autumn.

Mr. Gill belongs to a well-known family in the southern part of the State and has large real estate interests in Redlands where the couple will make their home.

SNOW-BISSELL.

One of the most important social events of the year in the cities about the bay, and probably the most important for years in Alameda, was the wedding last night of Miss Martha Snow and William H. Bissell, in the First Congregational Church.

The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Snow, 1419 Union street.

More than a thousand cards had been sent out and perhaps the largest social gathering of its kind ever seen in this vicinity assembled for the event.

Robert Harnden, a life long friend of the bride, presided at the splendid new organ, the Lohengrin wedding march being the signal for the entrance of the bridal party. Two small flower girls, Miss Grace Marian Elister and Miss Barbara Allan Penfield, a niece of the bride, led the way. They were gowned in dainty white frocks and carried baskets of Cecil Bruner roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Burnham of Folsom and Miss Blanche Tisdale, were gowned in pink chiffon, with wreaths of Cecil Bruner roses for hair ornaments and shower bouquets of roses.

The bride wore an imported Brussels lace gown made in the empire style and her veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an armful of Ascension lilies.

A cousin of the bride, Miss Ruth Cobb of St. Louis, was the maid of honor. Her gown was of white moire striped chiffon, and her bouquet was of the brilliant Ojai poppies. A wreath of gold worn in her hair completed Miss Cobb's costume. Percy Murdock attended Mr. Bissell, and the ushers were Allan Penfield, Daniel Bissell, Dr. James C. Hanley, Robert Colburn, Scott Hendricks and Hamilton Murdock.

Mrs. Snow, mother of the bride, wore an exquisite heliotrope crepe de chine, and Mrs. Allan Penfield, a sister of the bride, was gowned in champagne samite. Mrs. Bissell, the bridegroom's mother, wore an elaborate white chiffon cloth gown.

Fifty young friends of the couple were included in the invitation to the Snow home, where, following the church ceremony, an informal reception was held. Pink hydrangeas made an effective decoration for the house. Mr. Bissell and his bride will spend their honeymoon in the northern part of the State, where business interests call him. His position as general manager of the Great Western Power Company will necessitate the absence of the popular couple from this section for some months.

The groom is a son of W. A. Bissell, assistant manager of the traffic department of the Santa Fe railroad, and the family have resided in Alameda for twenty years.

RESIGNATION NOT YET ACCEPTED

Rev. Dr. E. E. Baker Requested to Retain Pastorship of First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Dr. Ernest E. Baker's resignation was presented to members of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church last night at a business meeting, and after a ballot was taken the resignation was not accepted. Hugh S. Aldrich, a prominent member of the congregation, made a motion that the resignation be not accepted and that Dr. Baker be invited to remain another year.

Formal Resignation.

The resignation tendered by Dr. Baker, pastor of the church, was as follows:

"To the members of the First Presbyterian Church: I hereby tender my resignation as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland, the same to take effect August 30, 1908.

"At a congregational meeting to be appointed by the session I respectfully request you take action looking to the dissolution of the pastoral relation now existing between us by the Oakland Presbytery which will be called in special session for Monday, June 29, 1908.

"Signed, E. E. BAKER."

Ira M. Van Slyke and Hugh S. Aldrich were appointed as a committee to notify Dr. Baker of the action of the meeting.

To Notify Presbytery.

Wales L. Palmer and Frank H. Woodward were appointed to go to the Presbytery, which meets Monday night, and report the action of last night's meeting. The Rev. Mr. Wm. H. Reedy, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, presided at the meeting. William J. Raymond was appointed clerk of the session.

On being informed of the vote, Dr. Baker said:

"The action of the congregation is deeply gratifying to me, and my position is such that even in view of my resignation having been tendered I can give the question in its new aspect very careful consideration before announcing my final plans. I will need time, however, to consult with my friends and with members of the church who occupy important positions."

SUES CAPT. ROSS FOR HER SUPPORT

Wife of Skipper Says He Had Fiendish Notion to Kill Her.

Mrs. Esther J. Ross of 3019 Deacon street says her husband, Captain John N. Ross, of the steamer San Mateo, declared that he would see her and her child begging in the street before he would support them any longer. Another allegation made in the action for separate maintenance started yesterday afternoon against the skipper is a threat to kill his wife if she dared come near him and that he had a "fiendish feeling toward her."

Denied Doctor.

He refused to allow company to come to the house, according to Mrs. Ross, who says that when she was sick she was denied a physician.

As captain of the San Mateo, Mrs. Ross says her husband receives a salary of $200 a month, and she asks that the captain be compelled to support her out of that amount. She further asks that her husband be restrained from visiting her home at 3019 Deacon street. They were married in San Francisco December

TO HOLD OLD AND COSTLY CEREMONIES FOR PRINCE

Hawaiian Funeral to Cost Between $3000 and $5000.

HONOLULU, June 16.—The funeral of the late Prince David Kawananakoa will cost from $3,000 to $5,000. The first estimates of the cost were $7,500, but the banks refused to finance it on such a basis.

Royal funerals come high, and it was decided that Prince David must have one. There are a large number of items of expense. The body from the time it is placed in the casket must be surrounded by kahili wavers, six or eight or a dozen, each dressed in black and wearing a cape of yellow feathers, and waving the kahilis according to a rhythmic ceremonial somewhat like beating time for music.

Then there are innumerable retainers, watchers, attendants and assistants. A large proportion of these have to be provided with apparel suitable to their rank and services. The catafalque is drawn by 200 or 300 men, and these have to be provided with suitable apparel.

In the presence of the Grand Jury at a session that lasted all day yesterday, County Expert John I. Sabin checked up the vouchers and requisitions of the county recorder's office. District Attorney Brown conducted the inquiry. Each of the county offices is being examined by the inquisitors.

It is expected that the Grand Jury will order a change in the method of bookkeeping. County officials say that the statutes prescribe the manner in which much of the clerical work must be done and that they are unable to make any changes under the present laws.

HARRISON ONLY KNEW HIS WIFE

Man Whose Mind Was So Long a Blank Reaches His Topeka Home.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 25.—George B. Harrison, the man who wandered away last January, forgetting his wife and two children and everything else that would naturally interest him, and who was found in San Diego, Cal., last week, returned to Topeka yesterday. He recognized his wife, but did not recognize his mother, sister or father-in-law.

Memory a Blank.

As far as all personal recollections are concerned, George Harrison's mind is blank. He did not remember his best friends who met the train at Garden City. He did not recognize a reporter who had known him for several years and who met him at Emporia. He did not remember even having seen a single thing before in Kansas, although he had been over the same railroad dozens of times before he went over it today.

Harrison was the first man off the train when it reached Topeka. He left his handbagage in the car and ran up the platform into the arms of his father-in-law, Henry Bennett. He did not recognize Bennett.

Knew His Wife.

As the latter was leading him away from the crowd Harrison remembered his suit cases and ran back for them. As he came from the car his sister met him. She threw her arms around him. He looked at her for a moment and then said: "You're not my wife."

With Bennett on one side and his sister on the other Harrison was conducted to the carriage in which sat Mrs. Harrison. He knew her instantly.

CAPITALIST GOT THE TIMBER LAND

Title of Property Worth Quarter Million Dollars Settled by Supreme Court.

UKIAH, June 25.—One of the bitterest legal battles in the State is practically ended by a decision from the Supreme Court. The parties litigant are Hale McGowen, clerk of Mendocino county, and his brother, George McGowen, against J. W. Pew, a San Francisco and Marin county millionaire, and indirectly the Northwestern Redwood Company, A. W. Foster of San Francisco and the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company, when it was the California Northwestern and Foster its president.

Timber Worth $250,000.

The case involves title to a tract of more than 1100 acres of fine redwood forest in Mendocino county, about four miles north of Willits and in the heart of thousands of acres owned by the Northwestern Redwood people. At the beginning of the history of the trouble the land was estimated to be worth $15 an acre. The whole body of land and timber in litigation is now worth in the neighborhood of $250,000.

Option Sustained.

Two decisions have been rendered in the Superior Court of Mendocino, the first in favor of Pew and the second in favor of the McGowens. The latest decision was by Judge J. Q. White to the effect that the securing of options on land ahead of the construction of a railroad was against public policy.

The Supreme Court has just reversed the decision of Judge White.

The McGowens have maintained an armed guard on the property for several years to protect their rights.

LEAVES STRANGE NOTE, THEN SWALLOWS ACID

RENO, Nev., June 25.—Bert Dunham of this city is at a loss to explain the death of his young wife, who committed suicide yesterday by swallowing carbolic acid. The only clue to her motive was a note left upon the dresser of her room. It read:

"Dear Bert: I am not guilty; God knows it. Good bye.—Elma."

The landlady of the apartment house where the Dunhams lived states that just before noon a woman called and had a short conversation with Mrs. Dunham. Shortly after the young wife was found dead, and it is thought that this woman could explain Mrs. Dunham's action.

NO LIFE LIKE THAT OF A COWBOY, SAYS GIRL

MISS ADA BISHOP.

Enjoys Riding and Climbing Trees

"There is no life like that of the cowboy or cowgirl as the case may be," declares Miss Ada Bishop, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Bishop of 208 East Eighth street.

Miss Bishop prefers to impersonate the cowboy rather than any character she knows of. She delights in attiring herself in rough riders costume and looks very comely with a whip in her hand on horseback.

Climbs Trees.

Ada is graceful and loves to climb trees and mountains. She never tires of out door life and is often seen in some unique gown.

Whenever an opportunity is afforded her she plays the role of the cowboy whether at home or on the stage. She has received much encouragement from actors to take up a stage career.

In Juvenile Roles.

Miss Bishop has played juvenile roles on the vaudeville stage, where she scored a hit. Singing and dancing are Miss Bishop's specialty. She plans continuing in her studies along musical lines. The young woman will pass her vacation at Lake Tahoe, where she will act the role of the cowboy.

WILL OF EX-PATRIATE TO BE CONTESTED SOON

Adopted Daughter of American Millionaire Brings Suit.

PARIS, June 25.—Madame Guillemin, the adopted daughter of Benjamin Hart, an American millionaire, will contest the will which the latter left at his death a month ago. Madame Guillemin was disinherited in the will.

She has brought suit on the ground that Madame de Bie with, with whom Hart had formed a mesalliance, had used undue influence upon the American. The will will also be contested as it was drafted in accordance with the New York law, whereas it is claimed that Hart was domiciled in France. The document will come up for probate before the surrogate of New York on July 20.

The adopted daughter is a French girl whom Hart adopted at the age of three and carefully reared. She was recently married to Jean Guillemin, a distinguished member of the French diplomatic service. Hart had lived in Paris almost continuously for the past twenty-five years.

THEODORE JR. AS A LABORER

Gets a Job With Steel Company and Father Issues Statement.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 25.—Theodore Roosevelt Jr., the young Teddy of the President's household is going to begin life as a common day laborer in the mines of the Steel Corporation. Rumors that have been afloat for several days regarding Teddy's job with the big trust called forth an official statement from Secretary Loeb as follows:

"John Greenway, who was in the President's regiment, has told young Roosevelt that he will try him on a job simply as one of the ordinary miners and exactly as he tries every year and is trying hundreds this year.

Except for the publication in the newspapers neither the President nor young Roosevelt knows that the company for which Greenway is superintendent has any connection either directly or indirectly, with the steel corporation. If it has it will, of course, make no difference.

"Young Roosevelt, if he goes into it, will be hired as a laborer and stand or fall strictly on his own merits. The statement that young Roosevelt accompanied several officials of the steel corporation on an inspection of the works last summer is false."

CHORUS GIRL MAY NOT PRESS DAMAGE SUIT

NEW YORK, June 25.—The suit of May Maloney, a chorus girl, against J. Rayno Storrs Wells for alleged breach of promise has gone over until the fall term for trial. The parties concerned were not present when the case came up for hearing and it is said that the difficulty may be settled out of court.

Young Wells met Miss Maloney, who was then a seamstress, at Newport seven years ago and they became engaged. Wells has been in many escapades, but has usually been excused on the interference of his millionaire father.

"We're Not Engaged," Says Couple, in Spite of Friends, June and Cupid

PHILADELPHIA.—Amid the numerous announcements of weddings and engagements comes one that, from its novelty, is jarring.

Malcolm Macfarlane Hopper, of 1329 North Twelfth street, says that he and Miss Sabina McCann, of 2820 North Twentieth street, are not engaged. Miss McCann says that she and Mr. Hopper never have been engaged—"not really."

Friends of the pair, who have been planning the wedding presents, are sorely puzzled. They are not quite sure what to make of the announcement. Mr. Hopper says it is incompatibility of temper. Miss McCann says she and Mr. Hopper can't agree. Whatever it is, the friends say they are disappointed, for they have watched the romance pass through its blooming stage toward perfect flower for the last ten years. Now, it would seem, the flower is withered.

The denouement of the affair is of more than passing interest to these friends, for they have had their attention drawn to the engagement—or understanding, if you please—of Mr. Hopper and Miss McCann for some time. Several months ago it was reported that the two, who have known each other for more than a decade, had secretly married.

Mr. Hopper shortly afterward gave a dinner at his apartments in Miss McCann's honor, and there he stater that he and Miss McCann were not married, but that they would be this September. Yesterday he said that none of his friends took him seriously. Now comes the latest from Mr. Hopper. Miss McCann would have little to say about the matter, except that relations between her and Mr. Hopper never had been sufficiently definite to warrant calling their state engaged.

Mr. Hopper says he is a descendant of one of Philadelphia's first families. His ancestors are reputed to have settled in Pennsylvania in 1641. He has spent four years in Europe and has traveled extensively through this country. Miss McCann formerly lived in Lancaster.

Cupid Powerless Under Stress of Hard Times And Active Politics

PHILADELPHIA.—Cupid has been hit by the hard times. There's a slump in June weddings, and, instead of working overtime, as they generally do this season, Chief Goebel and his staff of marriage license clerks are bemoaning the dull season.

Ministers, too, are complaining that wedding bells are not jingling as they were wont to do in former Junes, and engaged pairs are reviling fate and the financial straits.

"Why, there's nothing doing in our line these days to what there was last year," Clerk Goebel said yesterday, shaking his head. "So far we are sixty-seven licenses behind our record on June 13, 1907. Last year we issued 981; this year, 914. The total number for the month was 1826, but we won't get anything near that by the end of this June.

"We've noticed all spring there has been a falling off in applications. May was 350 and April 400 behind the 1907 record. I've seen this office so crowded the people had to wait in the hall for their turns, but there's never a day now but there's lots of room and plenty of time."

Of course, the chief, who is experienced in hymenal signs and knows all the indications that point to a heavy or a reduced crop of weddings, attributes the slump to the presidential election, the high price of provisions, increased rent rates and general scarcity of wherewithal. He hasn't lost faith in Cupid, but he knows that the initial cost of a license is only the beginning of marital expenses, and he hopes for better times.

RICHARD CROKER JR. WEDS SECRETLY

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary Brophy, of this city, and Richard Crocker Jr., of New York, son of Richard Crocker, the former Tammany chief. The announcement is as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Banigan announce the marriage of their niece, Mary Brophy, of this city, to Richard Crocker Jr., of New York city."

When and where the wedding occurred Mr. and Mrs. Banigan absolutely refused to say. Richard Croker met Miss Brophy when he was a student at Brown University. He entered with the class of 1900.

HE THANKED GOD FOR BIRTH OF SON AND HEIR

Without Waiting for Hat Duke of Norfolk Rushed to Church and Knelt in Grateful Prayer on Receiving the Glad News.

LONDON — When a son and heir was recently born to the duke and duchess of Norfolk, the event was treated as an event of almost national importance.

The duke of Norfolk is a man of mark in many ways. He is 60 years old and is the most important lay member of the Roman Catholic church in England and the head of the English peerage. The birth of a son insures the continuance in the direct male line of the ancient family of Howard.

When the duke received the glad news he was so overcome with joy that he cried. Then, without his hat, he ran to the cathedral near the castle of Arundel, where he knelt in prayer.

The infant earl of Arundel, is, indeed, a very important person. His arrival fulfils the hope of an elderly duke for a son to whom he could hand down the historic title. The duke of Norfolk has waited many years for a son and heir. The only child of his first marriage died in 1902 at the age of 23 a hopeless idiot and cripple. The first duchess died of grief when her son was 8 years old.

After the death of his son the duke married the Hon. Gwendolen Constable-Maxwell, daughter and heiress to Lord Herries—a young and beautiful woman of his own faith. Their union was blessed in 1905 by the birth of a daughter, and now both have been made perfectly happy by the birth of a healthy little earl of Arundel.

The duke was twice mayor of Sheffield, a town from which he derives some £100,000 a year, and from 1895 to 1900 was one of the most active postmaster generals the general postoffice ever had. He resigned to serve in the South African war.

A peculiar fact in connection with the earldom of Arundel, created in 1139, is that Arundel Castle is the only ancient feudal estate the possession of which ipso facto confers a title. If it were sold to any millionaire tomorrow he would at once become earl of Arundel.

In spite of his vast wealth and high position, the present duke of Norfolk scorns luxuries. He prefers old garments to new and can boast the proud distinction of being the worst-dressed man in the House of Lords.

Once, it is said, he went into a shop in Portsmouth, and the proprietor, thinking he had come in answer to an advertisement for an assistant, told him the place was filled and offered him sixpence to cover his disappointment. The duke, who is not without humor, took it with thanks and went.

SON BORN TO TITLED PAIR.

Because of the prominence of the Duke of Norfolk, premier peer of England, who is 60 years old, much interest was manifested in the birth of a son and heir to the great estates of the family.

BURNING OF JANE HARDING'S CHATEAU AT STROOMBECK RECALLS BURNING SCANDAL OF HER LIFE IN PARIS

A letter from Brussels states that the fine chateau at Stroombeck, owned by Mademoiselle Jane Harding, the singer, was destroyed by fire recently, and the loss is estimated at more than 500,000 francs in furniture, silverware, art objects and contents of the picture gallery. This news is of the highest interests to Americans at large and especially to the Thespian community, since it shows that in Paris an American artist, singer and otherwise, can economize enough in five or six years on a salary of some twenty dollars a week to own all the beautiful things which we are informed were thus destroyed. The name Jane Harding recalls two episodes which, some time ago, occupied the gossips of Paris, on the stage, before the tribunals and in all the fashionable salons of the capital. The first concerned a fish and a rabbit.

The animals were dead, too much so, it appears, and they were hurled from a box against Jane, who was performing on the stage. It happened to be a picturesque way of revenging herself invented by an indignant woman whom the actress had offended. The tribunals were besieged with the affair, but Jane with her rabbit and her fish was ridiculed forever.

The second episode, the one which finally compelled Jane to abandon Paris and to remove her person and savings to remote Belgium, was still more spicy. She never had much talent as an actress or singer, but her personal charms and plastic beauty were of the highest order, and, having abandoned the legitimate stage, she used to appear—so gossip affirms—on a private one, not miles away from the rue Lepic, where in all the splendor of her unadorned beauty she assumed classical poses for enthusiastic, rich, but baldheaded admirers, who remained invisible to the performer and to each other in carefully closed boxes, commanding a complete and perfect view of the performance.

This was very well until on a certain day, when an equally beautiful but imprudent society girl, belonging to the smart set of the American colony, became infatuated with Jane and began sending her the most extravagant and passionate letters.

Jane, in a fit of naughtiness, decided to introduce the society belle into her pantomimes and tableaux-vivants. The unfortunate girl, unsuspecting the trap, was induced to assume the most unconventional poses for the amusement, as she thought, of Jane, but in reality for the benefit of an audience of roues, who knew, at least by sight, the young lady and her family. The scandal spread like lightning through Paris, and in view of the prominence of the persons interested the French police had to close an eye, and Jane Harding had to depart for other climes.

This Widow Proved Contrary to the End

The editor of the Beanville Clarion dashed wildly into the composing room and yelled at the foreman:

"Eh! Hank, hold that story of Widow Jones' death. She tin't died yet."

"How long you want me to wait?"

"Well, we're expecting her death at any minute now."

"Gosh, that old widow always was the contrariest person in Beanville," muttered the foreman as he plied several lines lifting the type from the form.

Woman Aged 131 Years Is Oldest of Her Sex

HOME

ANGELIC WOMEN MAUL POLICE IN SCRAMBLE FOR MERRY WIDOW HATS

NEW YORK.—On the day set for distribution of Merry Widow hats at the matinee of "The Merry Widow" at the New Amsterdam Theater, there was a dandy riot, which left behind it a playhouse strewn with back hair puffs, baby pins and all those things which come off easily.

Now, these hats are just twenty-eight inches in diameter, and each was inclosed in a regular hat box. The management did not figure that the 50-cent seaters deserved any souvenirs and they did figure there would be some men in the audience, so they bought 1200 hats and thought they would be enough. Then they made over the lounging room in the rear of the main floor into a hat depot and put across the front of it a long counter, behind which were stationed a lot of people to give out the hats to the bread line, which the management intended to have pass by and get their hats in orderly, Henry W. Savage manner. But that wasn't exactly what happened.

As it turned out, there was something like 2000 women in the house, which was miscalculation No. 1. Of course, there wouldn't be a chance for the women if they were given hats on their entrance into the theater to get them into their seats and still let everybody see the show. So coupons were given out at the door, redeemable after the last curtain, each calling for a hat. And the management fondly expected the women would wait, which was miscalculation No. 2.

During the last intermission, just before the Maxim's scene, a number of women decided they preferred to stand during the remainder of the show. These filled up the space behind the seats. And then one or two of these happened to think they had to get home early and presented their coupons.

Manager Douglas and his corps of ushers and girls behind the counter wanted to please and gave out one or two hats, and the other women who were standing near happened to think they, too, had to get home early. More hats were given out, and then those down in front noticed the others were getting hats and started out to get theirs—all this long before the curtain fell.

By the time Sonnia—and the prince left Maxim's in the yellow spot there was more doing at the rear of the theater than on the stage, and the minute the curtain began to come down everybody who was not already there made a rush for the bargain counter.

The bread line absolutely refused to form—they came from all directions, and all wanted to get there first. There was one poor lonely special officer on the job, and it wasn't a minute before he was entirely surrounded by women.

Manager Savage himself took a look and then remembered he had an engagement downtown. Press Agent Maurice Kirby also looked in before going over to the Knickerbocker for a rickey.

When the doors were opened for the people to go out the women in the gallery who hadn't heard anything about the coupon racket thought they were in on the melon cutting as well as their downstairs sisters, so they all came down and around into theater and joined the merry party.

About this time some woman went through the breastworks of the hat-citadel and the pillars of hat boxes went over with her. Some of the hats were smashed and a lot of women thought it made a good chance to get their hats without waiting any longer and everybody went into the scrimmage. Four policemen were called in to stem the tide of women and save what could be saved of the hats.

Now it seems that after a coupon had been exchanged for a hat it was put in a little box on the counter. When the counter went over this box went, too, and the coupons were scattered over the floor. Those who had received no coupon went after one and the ushers went after the coupons, too, and that was another rough house.

And at 6:30 there were groups of women standing on the street clear over to Broadway, hatless, who had come that way intending to put the new hats on and not have an odd one to carry and who stood there with their hatpins in their hands and said naughty, naughty things.

Sprightly Girl Elopes in Auto While Mother Shops

PHILADELPHIA.—It didn't take long for Miss Mae H. Hasson, of 2004 East Chelton avenue, Germantown, to open the way for an elopement after her father had left on a business trip to Virginia.

Her mother was induced to go downtown on a shopping tour, and the daughter sat at home waiting. An automobile whizzed up to the front door, carrying the bridegroom-to-be, Louis Pratt; the two brothers of Miss Hasson, and George E. Conrad. Miss Hasson was ready for just such a spin, and she hopped into the big car and rode away with the party to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, where she was married to Pratt by the Rev. Father Kennedy.

After the ceremony, the pair went to Atlantic City on a honeymoon, and from there they will go on a southern trip.

Parents of the girl were not opposed to the match, but preferred a home wedding.

Sometimes

(By THOMAS S. JONES.)

Across the fields of long ago
He sometimes comes to me,
A little lad with face aglow—
The lad I used to be.

And yet he smiles so wistfully,
Once he has crept within—
I think that he still hopes to see
The man I might have been!

Rules for Care of Babies

Don't give them too much sun.
Don't dress them too warmly.
Don't give them coffee or tea.
Don't hesitate to call doctor.

CHICAGO.—During his recent attendance at the annual convention of the American Medical Association in Chicago, Dr. Joseph S. Neff, director of Philadelphia's Department of Health and Charities, was impressed with the excellent results accomplished by Chicago in reducing the number of deaths among infants, especially during the hot weather.

Upon investigation Dr. Neff discovered that one of the most successful agencies responsible for the decrease of infant deaths was information imparted to the mothers and caretakers of children through the newspapers.

In pursuance of his plan to follow somewhat similar methods, Dr. Neff has issued a bulletin, in which he draws the attention of mothers to certain precautionary measures in the care of the babies. Dr. Neff points out that the records show that during the heated season a large percentage of all deaths has been caused by infantile diseases.

With the hope that all those having care of infants will give attention to the department's advice, Dr. Neff made public the following suggestions:

Children should be kept in the open air, but not in the sun.

City parks and recreation piers should be used to the fullest extent.

Great care in proper clothing is an important feature in preserving the life of an infant.

In very hot weather, such as is experienced in the Eastern States, the baby only requires a clean diaper and a loose cotton slip, unless a flannel band is ordered by the doctor. On hot nights the child should be covered with a light sheet.

All the windows of the sleeping rooms should be open, but the child kept out of draughts.

Changes in temperature should be carefully watched, and when the weather turns cold additional clothing should be added.

Cleanliness in connection with clothing is of utmost importance.

A daily bath should be given and in very hot weather, if the baby seems to be suffering from the heat, it should be sponged occasionally with clean, cool water.

When the child is teething its mouth should be washed after each meal with some mild disinfecting solution, such as boracic acid, the proper strength of which is one teaspoonful to a pint of water.

Do not give the baby tea, coffee or alcohol.

Do not wean during the summer season.

Use only good quality of milk. If there is a dirty sediment at the bottom of the bottle or can, change your milkman.

Do not buy milk from stores that are insanitary, or where the milk is not kept in an ice chest, or where it is in close proximity to vegetables, fruits or meats, even if the meats are perfectly sound.

Do not use nipples attached to feeding bottles by rubber tubes, as it is almost impossible to keep them clean.

Bottles should be washed thoroughly in hot water—better still, in borax water, a teaspoonful of the former to a pint of the latter. Rinse them in clean, cold water, turn them upside down on a shelf to drain. Both bottles and nipples should be cleaned after each nursing.

If the baby should gain no weight, have irregular or disturbed sleep, any fever, fretfulness or crying, any irregularity, or any disposition to vomit after each feeding, a doctor should be consulted at once.

Couldn't Keep His Marriage Secret

PHILADELPHIA—It is more than possible that Alphonse R. Schmidt, head of an insurance inspector's firm at 416 Walnut street, who is 68 years old, might have kept his intended marriage to pretty 19-year-old Frances Clopper Witcraft, of Merchantville, N. J., a secret if he had not had some difficulty at the license bureau. He applied for a license, but found it necessary to have some one vouch for him.

He sent for his partner, H. P. Burke, oarsman and formerly commodore of the Schuylkill Navy, and since then his life has not just been all roses, for Burke told the pretty secret to the reporters. Mr. Schmidt lives in Delair, N. J., and has been a widower for eighteen months. He met his youthful fiancee a year ago when she became acquainted with a niece from Hamburg, Germany, who was visiting them.

Woman Who Has Lived On a Man of War Writes Jolly Little Book

Mrs. Roswell D. Hitchcock has written a jolly little book, which does not seem so long as its title, "Tales Out of School About Naval Officers and Others, by a Woman Who Has Lived on a Man of War." It is a collection, bound in imitation of printer's proofs, of good stories by Admiral Dewey, Rear Admirals Sigsbee and Porter, and the authoress of "Two Women in the Klondike."

Every officer in the navy will be glad to have a copy, and all the admirers of our navy will find a laugh or a thrill on every page. Admiral Dewey tells of the two bravest acts he has ever witnessed, but, unfortunately, does not give the names of the heroes. Rear Admiral Sigsbee relates how he rehabilitated Commander La Rocha, of the Spanish navy, whose destroyer, misnamed Terror, the St. Paul had destroyed. Rear Admiral Porter explains the surgical value of mosquitoes. Every page has its fun or facts, brightly told, and throughout the genial personality of Mrs. Hitchcock shines merrily and graciously.

At 71 Widower Decides to Wed His Housekeeper

PHILADELPHIA.—Samuel C. Powell, 71 years old, announced yesterday that he is about to marry Mrs. Augusta Mang, 60 years old, who has been acting as housekeeper for several years. BELL PROGRAM IS PLEASING WELL

ACK KLOVILLE, "The Fat Boy" in "The Nightingale," at the Bell.

"The Nightingale" is a complete comedy drama condensed to eighteen minutes' duration and is delighting the patrons of the Bell this week with its genuine dramatic interest and abundant comedy relief. Rachel Acton the star in the title role assisted by the "fat boy," Jack Kloville, make this intertaining.

Henri French in impersonations of famous musical composers and Wilfred, novelty equilibrist, assisted by a wonderfully sagacious dog "Lottie" continue to please.

Lawrence and Harrington, originators of the "Bowery Boy and Tough Girl," in vaudeville, together with Potter and Hartwell, "The Man With Two Heads," are the top notch laugh producers of the bill.

The sketch "Cynthia's Visit" in which Lily Dean Hart, Mrs. J. B. Jacks and Le Marr, participate in an occasion of polity.

Unusually good motion pictures are also shown.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. INJUNCTION SUIT IS ON HEARING

Case of Pacific Coast Mill and Lumber Company Against Building Trades Council.

The injunction suit of the Pacific Coast Mill and Lumber Company against the Building Trades Council is before Judge George E. Church of Fresno, sitting in Judge Melvin's court.

Gouveira testified yesterday that he began driving a lumber wagon for the plaintiff April 13 and on his first load was intercepted by William Warner and other union men who asked him where he was going with the lumber.

When he drove up to discharge the load at J. E. Couche's place, Gouveira says he was attacked by six union carpenters employed on the building.

The unions submitted testimony at the hearing yesterday to offset Gouveira's story. E. J. Couche says there were no men at work on the building on April 13. The day book of Foreman Ed Bird supports this statement.

Gouveira says that during the week following April 13, every time he left the yards with a load, some member of the teamster's union either attacked him or demanded to know where he was headed for with the lumber in order that they could ask the customer not to accept material from a non-union mill.

J. B. Bowen, business agent of the Building Trades Council testified that it is strictly against the rules of the unions to use rowdy tactics in boycotting. He said he was authorized to use only peaceful means of settling the troubles.

The court room has been filled with union men during the trial.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC MAKES CHANGE IN BAGGAGE RATES

New Charges on Basis of Passenger Fares.

According to an announcement by the Southern Pacific passenger2 officials, new excess baggage rates will go into effect on all the company's lines in Oregon, California, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico, after Wednesday, July 1. The officials state that on the whole the new rates will be much lower than the present charges.

The new system will be based upon the passenger fares, instead of a mileage basis as heretofore. The change will make it much simpler to determine excess baggage charges, than under present methods.

The rates for excess baggage per hundred pounds will be one-sixth of the passenger fare to the same point. A large part of the company's passenger fares are at 3 cents per mile, consequently, the excess baggage rate should be about half a cent per mile for a hundred pounds.

YOUNGEST HUNTER TO GET A LICENSE

SANTA ROSA, June 25.—County Clerk Fred Wright issued a hunter's license yesterday to the smallest hunter that has applied in this county. He is Tom Thomas, son of a Green valley farmer.

Tom is seven years of age and stands three feet seven inches. The boy, dressed in a sailor suit, paid over his dollar and signed the license book.

He uses a thirty-two caliber rifle in his bagging of game, and announced as he left the courthouse that County Clerk Wright and deputies might expect to receive some game from him.

LOST A DIAMOND IN THE PARTY CAKE

METHUEN, N. J., June 25.—Diamonds for luncheon at bridge parties is the latest innovation by Mrs. Mary Wilkins Freeman, the novelist. It was involuntary, though, for when Mrs. Freeman baked a big cake to regale twenty-five New York friends she forgot she had on a big solitaire. It was eaten to the last crumb and today Mrs. Freeman is busily inditing notes to her friends asking: "Did you eat my diamond? If so, please return." Answers so far received only praise her cake.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

KNOCKOUT WORTH MONEY IN ATTELL-MORAN FIGHT

Kyle Whitney Down to Weight and is Reported In Great Condition---Eddie Hanlon May Appear in Oakland.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

WHEN Abe Attell and Owen Moran step into the ring at the Mission street arena on Labor Day they will no doubt have an added incentive to make them take greater chances and consequently fight much harder than a fighter would if going along cautiously and contenting himself with the thought that he was winning the decision.

Jimmy Coffroth, who will promote the show, has made up his mind to take moving pictures of the scrap and to make them more valuable he would like to see a knockout as a climax to a fast and snappy fight.

To make it worth the while of each fighter to strive for this knockout, Coffroth is now in communication with both Attell and Moran with the following offer: Coffroth agrees to give the fighter, be it either Attell or Moran, scoring a knockout $1000, providing, however, that the man failing in the effort pay to Coffroth $500, which means that the promoter is betting each contestant $2500 against $500 that he does not score a knockout, although with the $500 that he would, of course, collect from the loser the bet would only stand Coffroth $2000.

While this proposition will improve the chances of the moving pictures being a success if accepted by the fighters, it will also be a good thing for those who will pay their hard-earned money to witness the scrap.

Attell is a gambler for any part of the money he may have at any and all times he has a chance to make a bet that looks good to him, and as he has intimated several times to the writer thathe was of the opinion that he is capable of putting the Britisher away the next time they meet, there is little doubt but that he will be willing to take the chance.

Moran can hardly refuse to take the chance if Attell does, for it would be an indication that he had some fear of his ability to put the Hebrew champion away, and that same British pride that marks all the English athletes will never allow him to be called on a bet like that.

Just what effect this proposition of the promoter will have on the fighters when they are in the ring is hard to say, but the chances are greatly in favor of the people seeing a great battle.

Whitney Money Loosens.

It has been announced at the training camp of Kyle Whitney that he is down to weight and that he is in great condition for his fifteen-round fight with Jimmy Gardner. Whitney is now selling at the short end of 10 to 7 betting and indications point to the fact that this may be the prevailing price, for last evening when Tom Corbett announced these odds the Whitney backers loosened up with their money and for a time made the poolseller get very busy writing tickets.

Considering the experience that Gardner has had and the men he has beaten it is only fair that the backers of Whitney should get odds for their money and to the writer the 10 to 7 betting looks about right. Gardner has been meeting all comers in his class for a long time and the only defeats that he has suffered within the past few years has been to Mike (Twin) Sullivan, and to use the fighter's own words this is how he puts this defeat: "I don't know why it is, but every time I meet Sullivan I fight like an old woman."

Surely Jimmy does not always fight like an old woman, for if he did he would not have been able to beat such men as Harry Lewis, Willie Fitzgerald, Rube Smith and Unk Russell, but if he does fight in anything but good shape tomorrow night the short end betters who have been playing Whitney will have even better than an even chance to win their money.

Jimmy Walsh, the hard hitting and fast fighting little Boston bantamweight still rules a hot favorite over the local champion, Jimmy Carroll, but still there are many of the fans who fully expect their contest to be the best of the evening.

Hanlon's Chances.

The Reliance Athletic Club is considering a match between Eddie Hanlon and Jack Clifford for their next show, which will be held some time prior to the 16th of July. Hanlon has been working hard at Boyes Springs and has been reported back to his old time condition by all who have seen him work. The fight with Clifford will act as a sort of a try-out for the popular little fellow who was one of the most popular fighters California ever produced.

Tontogany Terror in Good Shape Sets Long's Men Down With Five Hits and Almost Scores Shut Out.

Tontogany William Simmons Wright was in fine fettle yesterday, and this unusual exuberence on the part of Mr. Wright led to the downfall of Danny Long's heedless and 'headless' young men. The "Deacon" let the Seals down with five hits all of the singular number, and those five hits cut no more figure than a mosquito on a rhinoceros' ear so far as the Seals were concerned.

Wright has been pitching masterly ball of late and by winning yesterday he marked the tenth win of the last twelve games he has pitched, which shows that the Tontogany demon is flinging some these days.

Danny Long picked Sutor, the best man he has in his team to oppose Wright, but the poor support back of Sutor allowed the Oakland boys to walk away with the long end of a 4 to 1 score.

The Seals were off to a running start and scored their one and solo run in the second.

From a spectator's point of view there was very little to the contest.

Oakland got busy with the Seals in the sixth and seventh innings and scored two runs in each of these sessions. Score:

Lightweights Are Training Faithfully

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—Both Packy McFarland and Freddie Welsh are in fine shape for their coming battle at Jeffries' Club. McFarland is working like a Trojan and is getting down to weight nicely. Welsh has a little trouble over the matter of weight and is almost at the mark now.

The Los Angeles fans are taking nicely to this bout and Jeffries is likely to have a packed house when these fellows meet at his arena on July 4.

Schreck to Visit Kangarooland

SYDNEY, Australia, June 25.—The syndicate that has charge of the boxing shows for the fleet week here has asked Mike Schreck, the American pugilist, to show before their club. Schreck has accepted.

WOMAN CHAMPION TO PLAY TENNIS AT SAN RAFAEL

Miss May Sutton, woman tennis champion of the world, will arrive in San Francisco from the South July 3, 1908, on a short visit to friends at San Rafael.

On Saturday, July 4th at 3 o'clock p. m. she will meet Miss Hazel Hotchkiss of Berkeley, State champion, in an exhibition match on the courts of the Hotel Rafael, San Rafael. Much speculation has arisen among tennis enthusiasts over this match, many of them claiming Miss Hotchkiss will make Miss Sutton work very hard to beat her. Both are in excellent condition. Miss Sutton is playing even better than during her last appearance on the Wimbledon courts in England last year, when she regained the championship, having lost weight and playing a much faster game. Miss Hotchkiss has all the strokes of a man. Indeed, it takes a first class player among the men to beat her, and she has undoubtedly improved wonderfully in the past year. In any event the match is awaited with much interest, and a very large crowd will undoubtedly spend the week end at the Hotel Rafael to witness the event. A dance will be given in honor of the event at the club house of the hotel on the evening of the Fourth.

On Sunday, July 12th, in San Francisco, Miss Sutton will play Maurice McLaughlin, coast champion, and one of the best men players this side of Chicago. This should be a great match, and will serve as a criterion to Miss Sutton's ability, it having been many times claimed that she is as good, if not better than most men. The opinion, however, seems to be that McLaughlin will win, but by how big a margin is a question.

Miss Sutton has not appeared in this part of the country for over two years and her visit during the week following the Fourth has stirred up the tennis world, who are anxious to see her play once more. After her stay here, Miss May will leave for the north, to compete in tournaments at Portland, Seattle and Vancouver.

Neill to Fight Frank Mayfield

SANTA ROSA, June 25.—The Sonoma Valley Athletic Club has arranged a fight between Al Neill of San Francisco and Frank Mayfield for the Fourth of July. The fight is to take place at the Pavilion Rink. Neill is a great favorite here. Mayfield knocked out Joe Gorman at Sacramento last month in nine rounds, and the month previous beat Kid Farmer in nineteen rounds. The fight is to be held in the afternoon.

CHIT-CHAT OF THE GAME

BY T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

Long's lads played a rather loose game of baseball yesterday. Danny's boys seemed to be affected by something and more than one brain storm cropped up during the afternoon. Curtis was affected more than anyone else. He fell down on three chances. The entire team played like a lot of school boys and seven errors were charged up against them. As a result of yesterday's poor playing Long has posted an order for all the lads to report for practice in the morning until further orders.

★—○—★

This lad Henderson may turn out to be a good ball player, but he surely shows none of the ear marks. He is stiff and awkward at the bat, and unless he begins to get in the game soon, we fail to see where San Francisco made any too wise a move in letting Piper go for him.

★—○—★

McArdle is still out of the game, but he is coming along nicely and should be back within a few days.

★—○—★

In playing catch yesterday Skillman was slightly injured. The injury to the southpaw is not a bad one but it is likely to keep him on the bench for several days. Kansas was struck on the little finger of his left hand with a thrown ball, and has that "teeny" digit in a bandage now. Old Doc Cornell is the attending physician.

★—○—★

Hildebrand has a bat he calls Jeannette. From the poor results he gets out of this club he should rename it Joe Bush.

★—○—★

The announcement of the retirement of Clark Griffith from the head of the New York Americans is no surprise to those who have an inkling of what is going on in major league baseball circles. Griffith's success with the Highlanders has been very mediocre. Although Clark knows every point of baseball he has a rather undignified disposition and fails to get very good results with ball players. The American League has always wished to see New York win the pennant, and when Johnson put a team in that city he gave to Griffith his pick and choice of the best ball players in America. With what looked to be the best team in the league Griffith made but a surry showing. Clark has always been your-dyed-in-the-wool baseball crab. He was usually mixed up in squabbles with his players, and it has been known for some time that Clark was due for "the hook."

★—○—★

Jack McCarthy is making a great hit with the State League fans. Jack has always been a good umpire and he is going along at this usual clip this season.

★—○—★

Chief Esola, so report says, will sign with the Alameda State League team. Esola would surely make a good man for the Alameda bunch.

★—○—★

Joe Nealon, one of the best hitters California ever turned out, will be back in the game next Saturday and Sunday. Joe has been suffering from a sore knee, and as his team was playing the "Poor Boobs" last week, he didn't think it was necessary for him to be in the game.

★—○—★

Hogan was the only member of the Oakland team to get more than one "blow" yesterday. Hap hit the ball on the visage twice.

★—○—★

Rube Waddell's clever pitching against the Detroit "Tigers" put St. Louis in a tie with the Chicago White Sox yesterday. St. Louis walloped Detroit 7 to 1, while Cleveland defeated the White Sox 6 to 0. Addie Joss was the man to let the Sox down the chutes. He allowed Timber Jones' men only four hits.

★—○—★

Tom Corbett attended the ball game yesterday. Corbett's beak and one M. W. hat obscured the view of all the other spectators in the stand.

★—○—★

Van's first attempt resulted in an easy pop fly to Curtis.

★—○—★

They are still talking about Heitmuller's great catch of Tuesday. It was surely a great piece of work and it will be a long time before it will be equaled by any Coast League fielder.

★—○—★

Umpire Jack O'Connell is falling away to a ton.

★—○—★

Jack Gleason and Rip Van Haltren exchanged breezy chit chat before the game.

★—○—★

Any big league club needing a good outfielder and useful hitter had better have a chat with H. Heitmuller. While we were penning this, some kid in the bleachers poured the following useful counsel into the shell like ear of Sutor: "Strike out the vicious bull dog, for he is surely a bear hitter." Heiney made an easy infield out after that sally.

★—○—★

Kid Mohler is captain and first batter of the Seals now. Dan Long better be careful or the "Kid" may steal his togs.

★—○—★

Haley struck out his first time up. He missed the third one half a yard.

★—○—★

Henderson got a good hand the first time up. He slatted one of Wright's benders on the visage, but Van made a very neat and careful catch on the play.

★—○—★

Truck Eagan almost clouted one over the left field fence in the opener, but it was a foul and he went out on an infield hit shortly after.

★—○—★

Lewis takes a nice swing at them, but he does not manage to get them safe often.

★—○—★

Killian roamed around the coaching lines with a red sweater on. The southpaw looked like a Navajo chief in the garb.

★—○—★

Nick Williams opened the second with a slashing single past Eagan. Nick, when he lays against them, puts the proper horsepower back of them.

★—○—★

Eagan and Haley afford a catcher about as much protection from stolen bases as an ancient Swiss cheese would a fort from the attack of two or three 12-inch guns.

★—○—★

Wouldn't it help some if they posted a sign in the club house, "Give the laundry man a wink." Altman might see it.

★—○—★

Altman hustled some when he reached second on his centerfield hit in the third, but he failed to run from under his stewpan at that.

★—○—★

Dutch Altman showed judgment by remaining on third base on Wright's fly to right in the third. Had Altman tried to score he would have been dead as a Jum-Jam bird, and that species has been extinct nine million years.

★—○—★

Up to Van to score his vassal, Altman, in the third but Van fell down and died on an easy fly to right.

★—○—★

Lewis goes after fouls like a daschund chasing a sausage wagon.

★—○—★

Sutor tried to wing one of the Oakland players with a short foul in the third but he failed.

★—○—★

They played the first three innings in half an hour. Going some.

★—○—★

Some gent in the grand stand made a noise like a leghorn broiler. Suspicion points to a man who sat close to Mal Lowenthal.

★—○—★

When Mohler struck out in the third the fans slipped him the merry guffaw.

★—○—★

Those red sleeved undershirts that the Oakland players wore yesterday must have caused milk to develop on the filberts of some of the batters for they aimed anarchistic fouls in that direction with deadly intent.

★—○—★

Truck Eagan took a couple of healthy larrups at it in the fourth and then fanned.

★—○—★

Mickey Dugan has been promoted by the Seals management to succeed to the office of Doc Frost. Mickey looks as though he were raised under a bureau.

★—○—★

Jimmy Smith's leg is on the mend and he will be back in the game soon.

★—○—★

What a contrast there is in the countenances of Secretary McFarlin of the Oakland Club and Umpire Jack O'Connell. Jack's visage looks like the full harvest moon, while the little secretary's countenance resembles a soft boiled crescent moon.

★—○—★

Sutor was guilty of a balk in the fifth inning and Hogan was awarded a base on the left-hander's faux pas.

★—○—★

It was a costly peg that Wright made to catch Zeider off first in the fifth. The ball got past Happy's feet and rolled out of the battlefield, allowing Zeider to gain third base.

★—○—★

Zeider was caught in a clinch between third and home in the fifth inning and it took the whole Oakland team to run him out.

★—○—★

Deacon Simmons Wright played some ball when he beat a bunt in the sixth, took second on a bad peg to first, went to third on Sutor's bad throw and scored on the same bad play.

★—○—★

Truck Eagan tried to bunt in the sixth. Truck looks about as graceful when he tries to bunt as a full-grown elephant does when he tries to kick a flea off his left ear with his right foot.

★—○—★

Haley was sleeping when he was doubled on Eagan's wallop in the sixth. George mustn't be taking his thinking exercises regularly.

Homing Pigeon Breaks Record

The first of the ten homing pigeons that were liberated at Oregon City, Ore., on Monday, arrived at the loft of Willard W. White, at Adams Point, at 6:10 p. m. yesterday, thereby clipping two days off the record. Considering that three hours after the birds were liberated, they encountered a wind storm which was blowing seventy miles an hour against them, and also considering the hot wave they encountered in California, the time made by the birds was exceptionally good.

FIGHTERS ARE READY FOR BERGER'S BIG CARNIVAL

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25—Everything is in ship-shape for to-morrow night's big fistic show at the Coliseum. Sam Berger has looked after the seating arrangements and the pavilion has been set to accommodate 6,000 spectators. In view of the bargain rates which will prevail, the "boy promoter" who so ably managed his first fight expects to be kept busy handling the fans who have expressed their intention of taking a peep at the five pairs of ring artists who grace the card of the Washington Athletic Club. Competent ushers will be engaged to take care of the reserved seat patrons and no detail has been overlooked that will in any way benefit the public.

None of the fighters are doing any hard work, as they all are at the weight and in perfect condition. The impressive manner in which Gardner and Walsh have boxed in the gym and the fact that they have had a great deal more experience than Whitney and Carroll has caused the betting public to wager so heavily on their chances that the Californians are decided short-enders in the betting. Gardner is being well backed at odds of 10 to 7 while Walsh is a 10 to 8 favorite over Carroll. However, despite the shifting in the odds, there are few sports who will venture to express the opinion that either of the New Englanders is a cinch. They talk about class, etc., but Whitney is a very strong, rugged young fellow with a terrific haymaker and an exceptionally long reach, which will prove a big obstacle for Gardner to overcome. On the other hand, Carroll is a rangy kid with plenty of speed and a nagging left hand which may keep Walsh at bay for the full fifteen rounds. It would occasion no surprise to see both contestants last the full fifteen rounds and fast, nappy bouts may be looked for.

The preliminaries also are attracting more than ordinary attention, as two promising scrappers are to appear in these ring warmers. Willie Purtell, the North Beach lightweight, is fast forging toward the top and he and Bill Mack should put up a torrid go. Ollie Cornett, the heavyweight who fought in the amateur show last Friday night will make his debut as a professional and as he meets a seasoned old war horse in Sailor Gordon his stamina and gameness will be put to a thorough test. In addition to these two scraps there will be a six-round curtain raiser.

Eddie Smith has been engaged to referee the two main events and as he keeps the contestants busy during the entire time they are in the ring, the ringside sports will get a run for their coin.

The management reports a heavy advance sale of seats and the ticket sellers at Devereaux & Walton's cigar store in Oakland and at the Hague on Fillmore street and Tom Dillon's on Market street are kept busy exchanging pasteboards for mazuma. The first go will be staged promptly at 8 15, owing to the length of the program.

SPICY TURF GOSSIP

Rose Queen, Lotus Eater and Miss Officious were the three good things THE TRIBUNE passed out yesterday. Jim Neil's Distributor, with Coles up dropped into the three hole at odds of 3 to 1 to peep.

Walter Jenning's Julia Powell finished third in the Mermaid stakes at Sheepshead Bay yesterday.

Rose Queen just toyed with her field in the two-year-old race at the Meadows yesterday.

Flying Fox was only beaten twice in England — by St. Gris in the Imperial Produce Plate at Kempton and by Cullman in the Middle Park Plate.

C. A. Ross, the California turfman, holds the contract on C. Ross, the rider. The boy was adopted by Ross, and his right name is Charles Basqual. He was born in Ireland and raised in France.

Foreign-bred horses which won the English Derby were Gladiateur (1865), bred in France; Iroquois (1881), bred in America, and Kisber (1876), bred in Hungary.

During the riding career of the famous jockey, Fred Archer there was a man who used to sell penny packets of cough drops and similar confectionery at the race meetings. In each of these packets was a slip of paper on which were written tips for the afternoon races. This man gave lots of winners and did a roaring trade. He blindly put all his takings on the mounts of Archer, who was then at his zenith. He was marvelously successful in his investments and the more he won the more he put on. In fact, he, in turf phraseology, pluckily played his winnings until he was having thousands of pounds on individual mounts of "The Tinman," as the great jockey was known. He became a rich man but, not satisfied with the fortune he had acquired from so small a beginning, he continued to plunge until he found himself, after a long sequence of bad luck, "stone broke" and at the bottom of the ladder again.—Sporting Life.

Application has already been made for stabling for 546 horses at Windsor. There are 558 stalls on the track and 75 on the outside have been secured by the club. Almost all the owners who raced at Hamilton and Montreal want to go to Windsor, while applications are pouring in from New York and Latonia. These include the stables of Phil Chinn, Sam Lazarus, Archie Zimmer, Carter Hall, Barney Schreiber, J. H. Madigan and Hon. Adam Beck.

The organization of the Personal Liberty League is well under way throughout the State of New York and it threatens to be a hoisting petard of huge force unless all present signs fail. No less than eight or ten strong clubs have spontaneously grown up in and around New York within the last three or four days, and when some encouragement is given the movement—it is now in sight—no one need be surprised to see a matter of more than 100,000 voters organized for use against members of the Hughes school of political fanatics before the next election. It is likely to be fully as forceful a political club as are the various church leagues which now compel the average politician to do that which is entirely foreign to his natural bent and against his experience and his wishes. Mr. James R. Keene is likely to be president of the new organization with Stephen Sanford of New Amsterdam as vice president. Colonel Franklin Bartlett will probably be the league's general counsel.

Oakland "Boobs" Lose Another

SANTA CRUZ, June 25.—"Getting closer to a record." That is the cry of the Oakland State League ball club. They lost again yesterday and they now have to lose only today and they will be tied for the world's record losing streak. T. Hoag played a good game for Santa Cruz. Score:

Randolph is Hit Hard by Beavers

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—Because Portland hammered Randolph and Koestner with good effect here yesterday afternoon the Beavers won from the Angels by a score of 8 to 1. Randolph started to pitch for the Angels, but he quit the game after six innings. During this time the Beavers slatted him for five runs and ten hits. Koestner succeeded Randolph but he could not stop the desperate hitting of the Beavers.

Marshall started to twirl for the Beavers but when the Angels started to get to him McCredie yanked him out and sent Groom in. The game was a slow one. Score:

Boraxo Team Win Ball Game

The Boraxo ball team defeated the Ovals in an exciting eleven inning game at West Oakland Sunday morning by a score of 9 to 8. The Ovals secured a lead in the first inning but the score was tied in the seventh, 8 to 8. After the seventh clever fielding kept the run column clear and it looked like an all day game until the eleventh, when Pitcher Martin brought over the winning run for the Boraxos on Golden's timely hit.

The feature of the game was the pitching of Martin, who, in addition to his excellent box work, aroused the fans by a great base running. Garrett, second baseman of the Boraxos, made a splendid one-hand running catch in the fifth, which prevented the Ovals from scoring.

Major General Putnam, U. S. A.

THE hero of Bunker Hill—who first marshaled the Riflemen of the Revolution—and left his plow standing in the furrow to hoist the banner of defiance against legislative oppression! Who has not heard of him?

When others faltered and grew pale, facing fearful odds, this intrepid old Puritan Commander remained stronghearted, steadfast and true. His tavern, known to fame as the "GENERAL WOLFE," was (in its day) a celebrated meeting place for Revolutionary veterans.

In its cozy bar parlor they delighted to periodically gather and drink with him the foaming juices of the malt; toasting each other in memory of the splendid and heroic days when they gave blood and treasure to found this nation and write the immortal principle of "PERSONAL LIBERTY" in our laws forevermore.

Hale, hearty and generous minded to the last, Israel Putnam died at eighty-three, and what living Prohibitionist dare stand up and say, "I am a purer patriot than he?"

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, June 25.—The opening market today showed a good deal of strength in spite of the very light tone. St. Paul and Northern Pacific were lifted about a point and Union Pacific and Reading large fractions. Not enough business was done to change the opening level of prices notably. Colorado & Southern gained 1, Westinghouse Electric 2¼ and the first preferred 5 points. International Paper preferred yielded 1, and United States Pipe preferred 4.

Prices dropped down in sympathy with renewed weakness in Rock Island and Missouri Pacific. The previous advances were generally cancelled. At a slight rally trading fell into stagnation.

Bonds were irregular.

Trading was commonplace and without feature except for a rise of 1¼ in American Car on the favorable annual report.

The market closed firm and dull. American Locomotive's gain reached 5¼ and helped to hold the general list firm with the day's small gains well maintained.

The declaration of the usual dividend on American Locomotive caused a jump in that stock of 4⅝ and influenced some strength into the rest of the list.

INSANE CHINAMAN IS COMMITTED TO ASYLUM

Fong Toy, a Chinese farmhand, had the Celestial devil and dragons crawling all over him yesterday in his room at the Receiving Hospital. When before Judge Ogden and a lunacy commission for examination, the devil deserted him but the evil spirit was still on his trail.

Fong was pronounced a crazy Chinaman and committed by Judge Ogden to the insane asylum at Stockton.

TO ERECT NEW FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The project of building a new house of worship for the First Christian Congregation of this city will be discussed at a meeting called for next Monday. A valuable lot was purchased some months ago on Grand avenue and Webster street, and it is now owned by the church free of incumbrances. The plans of building were under discussion when the church found it necessary to postpone action because of the financial stringency. Now the members of the church are anxious to build, and it is thought that operations will commence in a short time. The church will be built upon the Mission plan, and will be one of the handsomest in Oakland.

Harry Perry and Uda Waldrop will study music in London and will remain away two years.

RUEF CALLS HENEY D—D LIAR IN COURT

Prosecutor Scores Appellate Judges for Schmitz Decision

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—"You're a damn liar!" said Ruef to Heney in the presence of Judge Cabaniss and spectators in department 4 of the Police Court yesterday afternoon and the former boss and the private prosecutor were only restrained from coming to blows by the interference of Bailiffs Hagerty and Williams.

The trouble arose during the hearing of the Ruef Parkside case. James McCarthy, Heney's bodyguard, was about to leave the courtroom to summon Clerk Behan of the Board of Supervisors, who was to have been a witness.

Objects to Leaving.

Attorney A. F. Newburg, representing Ruef, objected to his leaving, saying that he had a subpoena for him. The man paid no attention and Newburg demanded that he be searched, saying that he carried a revolver and that the life of Ruef was in danger.

At this juncture Heney jumped into the argument and said there was no one in danger but himself.

"Life in Danger," Cries Heney.

"My life is in danger through the hired assassins of Ruef," cried Heney. "If anything should happen you will be the first to get it," pointing at Ruef.

Ruef said that he had nothing to do with the statement of Newburg, but Heney accused him of suggesting to Newburg what to say. It was at this time that Ruef said: "You're a damn liar," and both the assistant district attorney and former boss moved toward each other. Bailiffs Hagerty and Williams intervened and all quieted down. Judge Cabaniss took no official cognizance of the affair and Clerk Behan resumed his testimony.

During the examination of Clerk Behan on the records of the Board of Supervisors, relating to the application of the Parkside company for its trolley franchise, Attorney Newburgh had occasion to quote from a decision written by Judge Cooper of the Appellate Court.

Quotes Cooper Decision.

"In People vs. Hurley, 126 California, 251," said Newburgh, "it is held that additional charges of bribery cannot be proved. This decision was written by the same able and learned justice of the Appellate Court who wrote the Schmitz decision, and it will be remembered long after some of us here are dead and forgotten."

"That decision will likewise stink to heaven when all of us here are dead and forgotten," answered Heney. "I wish to add that I am not afraid of anything that court may do to any of my cases."

Behan's examination was continued for about twenty minutes last night, but Heney did not attend court.

"I have reasons for not wishing to come here at night," said Heney, "and I have no objection to declaring them. I am not afraid to meet anyone in the daytime with my back against a wall, but I do not believe in being taken unawares in the dark."

OASIS OF IDORA THRONGED WITH HADJIS, YOUNG AND OLD

Mystic Shriners Gather for Pilgrimage in Autos and Street Cars.

Idora Park Skating Rink was the Mecca of Islam Temple of Mystic Shriners in their pilgrimage to this side of the bay last night. Sixty-two Hadjis, or initiates, were dragged across the hot sands and plunged into the icy water of the oasis until they emerged bearing the full insignia of a Shriner.

The pilgrimage of Shriners to this side of the bay last night and the initiation constituted one of the steps in the establishment of a Shrine in Oakland. There are only two Shrines in the State—one in Los Angeles, which covers the territory from the Tehachipi south, and the other, known as Islam Temple in San Francisco, which covers the central and northern part of the State.

Shriners' Club.

The members of the Mystic Shriners in Oakland have formed what is known as the Alameda County Shriners' Club, and intend to establish elaborate headquarters in this city. Among the active members of Oakland and Alameda county who are taking part in the foundation of the club are Edward H. Morgan, F. W. Bilger, Col. Charles L. Pierce, A. L. Ott, F. B. Ogden and others.

The Shriners' Club will be but a stepping stone toward creating a Shrine in Oakland. The Alameda county Shriners will seek the permission of the Imperial Body and Islam Temple to erect their Shrine.

The Shriners of Islam Temple gathered at the temple of the Masons at Twelfth and Washington streets at 6:30 o'clock last evening. They donned baggy trousers of the warrior Arab and exchanged their ordinary head gear for the red fez.

A royal caravan was formed and headed by High Potentate Ashcroft and officers of state started on their pilgrimage and journey across the hot sands of the paved desert. Henderson's Band heralded its approach and hundreds of people gathered along the sides of the line of march and watched the caravan wind its way out through the ravine between the tall buildings of Broadway and Washington street into the desert trial leading to the Oasis of Idora.

The officers rode upon the backs of camels. These camels, however, are of the more modern type than the ship of the desert, which goes eight days without a drink.

Oasis of Idora.

The Sahibs followed the chief Arabs' automobiles by taking a caravan of special cars, which carried them over the burning sands of the desert of Telegraph avenue to the brilliantly illuminated Oasis of Idora.

Here the big pilgrimage was brought to an end and 1500 Shriners gathered under the spreading leaves of the date palm and drank of the refreshing waters of the desert spring and partook of the feast carried with them by the faithful caravan. The throne was in the East. After paying due homage to the high potentates and officers of state the chosen band of Arabs rode forth to bring their young pilgrims, who had made the journey tied arm to arm.

The officers in charge of the parade were Col. William Edwards, assisted by First Lieutenant Charles Jollenek; Second Lieutenant Capt. A. Woodside and Adjutant W. A. Scott. The officers in charge of the initiation were High Patentate Henry Ascroft; High Priest and Prophet C. H. Van Orden; Chief Rabban George Filmer; Assistant Rabban William P. Humphreys; Marshall F. D. Brandon; Captain of Patrol Col. W. Edwards; Adjutant of Patrol, Walter A. Scott; Purveyor of Control Manuel Lafee; Representative of Imperial Council Thomas Trebell; Treasurer Thomas Morton.

The Arab Patrol, wearing baggy trousers and costumes of yellow, red and green and which marched in fancy and military drill on the streets was composed of the following Shriners:

AMERICAN TEAM TO LOSE ANOTHER ATHLETE

NEW YORK, June 25.—With the departure of the American team for the Olympic games in London only a few days away, word of the probable withdrawal of another top-class man from the aggregation to the three who earlier in the week announced their inability to make the trip, has been received by the committee. Manager Mathew Halpin has been informed that Martin J. Sheridan, entered for the discus throw, would probably decline to start for London with the team on Saturday.

Western athletes are beginning to arrive and the entire team is expected to be on hand Friday night at the New York Athletic Club for the final muster.

CAMPING PARTY SEEKS PLEASURE IN COUNTRY

A party of Oaklanders comprising Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hough, their daughters, Marguerite and Genevieve; the Misses May Armes, Mildred Manuel, Margie Porter and Bessie McFarland, and Mrs. Cleveland and her son Neal, left today for a couple of weeks' vacation at Camp Meeker. Mr. Hough is the only male adult of the party, and claims to be the only genuine shampooer (chaperon) qualified to govern so large a coterie of intellect and beauty in the wilds of Sonoma county. All the ladies are expert fishers and Miss Marguerite is a fine rifle shot, and their Oakland friends expect lots of game and trout from them. Mr. Hough is relied upon to send some vivid tales of his experiences with bears and wild cats in the mountains.

LEADEN BULLETS FOR SHAM FIGHT

Fortunate Discovery for Canadian Militia on Eve of Tactical Battle.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Examination yesterday of the ammunition to be used for the sham battle today by the 6000 volunteers in camp at Niagara revealed the fact that one-quarter of the supposedly blank shells were loaded with ball, caused by a mixing of shipments. The inspection would not have been made in the ordinary course of events, but Brigadier Hasen of Toronto was led by a feeling of unrest and apprehension to investigate, thereby preventing what must surely have been a great loss of life, as the annual sham battle is always a realistic affair.

W. R. Ward of Lyersburg, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that I have used Foley's Orino Laxative for chronic constipation, and it has proven without a doubt to be a thorough practical remedy for this trouble, and it is with pleasure I offer my conscientious reference." Sold by all druggists.

MANTELL APPEARS IN RICHELIEU

Lytton's Drama to Be Presented Tonight by Famous Tragedian.

"Richelieu," Bulwer Lytton's famous drama, which Mr. Mantell will present at the Macdonough Theater tonight, is one of the old standard plays, written in the style of sixty years ago. The strong and skillful study of the wily old cardinal has kept the play alive for so many years. He is portrayed both from the picturesque and the human side, with the fine, noble qualities that belonged to him, and also his weaknesses, and the role has always been a favorite with tragic actors since the days of Macready and Edwin Forrest, who were the originals.

Yiddish Play.

The Frank Brothers Yiddish Opera Company will appear at the Macdonough Theater June 27 and 28 in "The Sacrifice of Isaac."

COULDN'T RUN BILL SO SEEKS DIVORCE

Restraining Order Ties Up Rich Rancher's Money Until Suit Is Settled.

Because of the alleged fact that Eugene Lindley, a wealthy and prominent rancher of Yolo county, stopped the credit of his wife at the store in which she was accustomed to trade, caused Mrs. Elizabeth J. Lindley to sue for divorce. In the complaint placed on file in the Superior court, she alleges other acts of cruelty and humiliation.

A restraining order issued by Judge Harris prevents Lindley from selling several hundred acres he owns in Yolo county or the grain and stock on the farm. The rancher cannot draw money out of the Bank of Winters, Bank of Yolo, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank or the Yolo County Savings Bank because of the injunction served on him from the Oakland jurist.

The couple were married August 22, 1887, and have a daughter, Nona Claire Lindley, fifteen years of age. According to the wife's complaint, the prosperous rancher has become tired of her company and told her so in words that she says were shocking. He applied vile names to her, she states, and has made it necessary for her to bring their twenty-two years of married life to an end.

HAS VOTED AT EVERY CALIFORNIA ELECTION

Henry Degroat, 78 years old, who says he has voted at every general election in the history of California, registered late yesterday with the county clerk. In 1849 he says he voted for Governor Peter H. Burnett, the State's first executive.

"I was at Sacramento then," said the pioneer, "and the state capitol was located at Monterey. Burnett was elected as a Democrat, but resigned after serving a year. Since then I have never failed to vote and I don't want to miss the occasion presented next November."
